

Scott P. Schloegel Senior Vice President, Congressional Affairs Export-Import Bank of the United States

Scott Schloegel brings more than 20 years of state and federal political and legislative experience to his position as Senior Vice President of Congressional Affairs.

A Michigan native, Scott worked as a Legislative Aide in the Michigan House from 1990-1992. In 1993 he became District Director for Congressman Bart Stupak of Michigan and served as Stupak's Chief of Staff from 1997 to 2010. While serving as Stupak's Chief of Staff, Schloegel also served as Professional Staff and an Investigator on the House Energy & Commerce Committee's Oversight & Investigations Subcommittee where he investigated issues ranging from the BP oil spill in the Gulf to food and drug safety recalls to cyber security at our nation's nuclear weapons labs.

Since coming to Ex-Im in January of 2011, Schloegel has successfully led the Bank to a 3 year reauthorization through Congress and helped secure an increase in appropriations for FY2011. He also led four new Ex-Im board members through Senate confirmation.

Schloegel currently lives in northern Virginia with his wife Kirsten and two daughters Emma and Lauren.
