Smoke Signals Newsletter - Submission Criteria

Smoke Signals is a quarterly newsletter published by the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Branch of Wildland Fire Management at the National Interagency Fire Center. The newsletter targets audiences throughout the interagency fire community and highlights Indian Country fire and natural resource management programs. Smoke Signals is a grassroots effort and we encourage those in the field to submit articles highlighting local programs and achievements.

To submit an article, please include the following:

- 1. Article: Word® document not to exceed two pages of text (single line spacing).
- 2. Photographs: High resolution .jpg files. Please do not embed photos into Word® document. Email (or mail if necessary) photos as separate files.
- 3. Contact information (name, phone number, email address) for follow-up correspondence.

The deadlines for submitting articles are:

March 1

June 1

September 1

December 1

If you need additional information please contact Laurel Simos (lsimos@blm.gov) or Dave Koch (david.koch@bia.gov).
