MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: U.S. Army Garrison Vicenza Policy Memorandum 08-42, Child-Supervision

1. Reference, DA Army in Europe Child-Supervision Guidance Letter, 9 June 2008.
2. This memorandum explains the installation's child-supervision policy. The enclosed table provides information to help parents safeguard their children. In conjunction with the Europe Region's Child Supervision Guidance, this policy is based on the child's grade in school, not the child's age. Unlike the Europe Region's Child Supervision Guidance letter, this policy does not have an expiration date.
3. Parents are ultimately responsible for the welfare and actions of their children. Failure to exercise those parental responsibilities may constitute child neglect. Parents must use good judgment and consider the physical, emotional and psychological maturity of their child when determining the level of supervision the child requires. Parents should not give the degree of self-management and responsibility allowed in this guidance to children with an attention deficit disorder (ADD), attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), behavioral problems, developmental delay, impulsivity, psychiatric problems, or other impairments.
4. Table 1 of the enclosure provides guidance on the level of adult supervision needed for children in different grades. Incidents of unsupervised children will be reported to the installation Family Advocacy Program (FAP) report point of contact (RPOC), the military police at DSN 634-7233 or CIV 0444-71-7233, who will ensure that incidents are investigated. The FAP RPOC will forward cases of unsupervised children to social work services and the garrison commander. Table 2 provides conversions from age to grade for home-schooled children. During the summer, children are considered to be in the grade they just completed.
 - a. Children in the fifth grade and below will have adult supervision at all times except as indicated in Table 1 under the "May Be Left Outside Unattended (Including Playing)" and "May be Left Unattended in a Car" columns.
 - b. Children in the sixth grade may baby-sit siblings over 2 years old for up to 3 hours if they have ready access to adult supervision. Children in the seventh grade and higher may baby-sit children for up to 6 hours if they have ready access to adult supervision. The definition of ready access constitutes a minimum requirement of availability of telephone access and telephone number of each person designated as having an adult supervisory role. Children in the 7th grade and younger who are eligible to baby-sit may not pick up children from CYS activities.

SUBJECT: U.S. Army Garrison Vicenza Policy Memorandum 08-42, Child-Supervision

5. Table 3 of the enclosure lists child-supervision criteria, including supervision levels, definitions, and supervision options for parents. Parents who need help identifying an option that meets their requirements should be referred to the Child and Youth Services resource and referral office.
6. This policy does not supersede individual garrison organizations that have established age restrictions in their facility for the safety of their patrons.
7. Point of contact for this action is the Family Advocacy Program Manager, DSN 634-7489.

NOTES:

- Parents must make an informed choice (e.g., regarding heat, level of danger, amount of time) when carrying groceries from the car to the stairwell apartment or when doing laundry and leaving the child in the stairwell apartment.
- Adult supervision is defined as "someone who has or assumes responsibility for the child (for example, a parent, guardian, care provider, friend)."
- Parents are responsible for assessing the individual capabilities of their children. Questions to answer may include "Can your child solve problems independently?" "Does your child think through to the consequences before choosing to behave in a certain way?" "How does your child occupy him- or herself when left with free time?"
- Ready access is defined as "at a minimum, telephone access and telephone number of each person designated as adult supervision."
- Children may have difficulty assessing dangerous weather conditions (e.g., extreme heat or cold) and taking action to protect themselves.
- Red Cross or CYS babysitting training is strongly recommended.
