Model TCC Continuation Coverage Additional Election Notice
(For use by agencies for individuals who experienced an involuntary termination in which the individual did not elect TCC coverage or elected, but subsequently dropped, coverage and for which the involuntary termination occurred during the period from September 1, 2008, through February 16, 2009.)

Dear XXXXXX:

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (ARRA), enacted February 17, 2009, provides a new health insurance opportunity for former employees who were or are eligible for temporary continuation of coverage (TCC) under the Federal Employees Health Benefits (FEHB) Program because they were involuntarily terminated between September 1, 2008, and December 31, 2009. Under this new law, former Federal employees may request premium assistance for their TCC under the FEHB Program. Premium assistance means your former agency will make a Government contribution of 65 percent of the TCC premiums for your FEHB plan enrollment.

Your Federal employment terminated on [Date]. In accordance with 5 CFR 890.1103(a)(1), you were eligible to enroll in TCC to continue your FEHB health benefits coverage for 18 months following the date of your separation from Federal employment. This is to notify you that you have an additional opportunity to elect TCC. In addition, you may request premium assistance, which will be extended for up to 9 months or until you become eligible for other group health coverage or Medicare or the date your TCC period, measured from the date you initially became eligible for TCC, ends. Note that “group health coverage” in this instance does not include limited coverage such as that consisting of only dental, vision, counseling, or referral services; coverage under a health-care flexible spending arrangement; coverage of treatment that is furnished in an on-site medical facility maintained by the employer and that consists primarily of first-aid services, prevention and wellness care, or similar care; or a combination of any of the above. Also note that eligibility for other group health coverage will disqualify you from receiving premium assistance; it does not matter whether you elect to enroll in the other group health coverage.

If you are not eligible for other group health insurance coverage or Medicare and you now wish to enroll in TCC and receive premium assistance, you must complete the attached request form and send it to [Benefits Officer] at the following address:

[Agency Address]

Under TCC rules, you may enroll in any FEHB Program plan as your TCC coverage. However, please note that to be eligible for premium assistance, you must enroll in TCC under the FEHB plan you were enrolled in when you were separated from Federal service, or another FEHB plan with an equal or lower premium. If you receive premium assistance, your premium will be 35 percent of your FEHB TCC premium for the period in which you are eligible and enrolled. Your share of the premium for the health plan you were enrolled in on the day prior to your separation, [name of plan], is [Premium amount from Attachment C]. Please note that receipt of premium assistance does not lengthen the 18-month period for which you are eligible for TCC.

If you become eligible for any group health plan or other coverage described above that makes you ineligible for premium assistance, you must notify your FEHB Program health plan and your former agency at the address provided in this letter. You no longer may receive premium assistance for any remaining TCC period or you may be subject to a penalty of 110 percent of the premium assistance you received.

You also should be aware there may be tax consequences associated with receipt of premium assistance for certain high-income individuals. The Internal Revenue Service website has information for former employees at:
