ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

MICROTEST, INC. CONSENTS TO CEASE AND DESIST ORDER FOR IMPROPER ACCOUNTING

The Commission issued an order today instituting and settling public administrative proceedings against Microtest, Inc. (Microtest), for engaging in improper recognition of revenue in fiscal 1995 and 1996 and for keeping inaccurate books and records in fiscal 1998. The Commission's Order finds that Microtest violated the reporting, books and records, and internal control provisions of the federal securities laws.

The Commission's Order specifically finds that, to meet revenue goals at the end of the third fiscal quarter of 1995, Microtest entered into sales agreements with five of its distributors that included liberal payment and return privileges, including stock rotation rights, that were different from the terms that Microtest previously had included in sales agreements with its distributors. Microtest violated generally accepted accounting principles, specifically Statement of Financial Accounting Standards 48, by recognizing the revenue from these sales in its third quarter and year-end 1995 financial results because it could not reasonably estimate and provide a reserve for future returns of product. As a result of the improper recognition of revenue from these transactions, Microtest reported materially inaccurate financial results in periodic reports filed with the Commission for the third quarter of 1995 and year-end 1995. In its 1995 third quarter Form 10-Q, Microtest overstated revenue by $4,014,000, or 26.5 percent of the quarter's stated revenue. Microtest also overstated revenue by over $4 million in its 1995 Form 10-K.

The Commission's Order finds that in 1996, Microtest instituted a direct sales program in which the buyers entered into the transactions with Microtest "at absolutely no risk with a 30 day money back guarantee." Microtest also represented to the buyer that it could "send no money now but agree to pay this amount in 30 days from the above date if [it] decided to keep the product." On these transactions, Microtest improperly recognized revenue at the time of shipment rather than at the end of the 30-day period. Accordingly, Microtest restated its net income for the second quarter of 1996 from $1.316 million to $982,000, a difference of 25 percent, and its net income for the third quarter of 1996 from $1.435 million to $991,000, a 31 percent reduction. Microtest restated its revenue for the second quarter of 1996 from $13.32 million to $12.666 million, a difference of 5 percent, and its revenue for the third quarter of 1996 from $13.007 million to $12.136 million, a 7 percent reduction.

In addition, the Commission's Order finds that Microtest filed three materially inaccurate 1998 Form 10-Q's with the Commission, and restated its financial results for the first three quarters of that year due to inaccurate books and records and a failure of internal accounting controls.

Without admitting or denying the findings of the Commission, Microtest has consented to the entry of the Commission's Order. The Order directs that Microtest cease and desist from committing or causing any violation and any future violation of Sections 13(a), 13(b)(2)(A) and 13(b)(2)(B) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rules 12b-20, 13a-1, and 13a-13 thereunder.
