U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

DATE SET FOR SUSPENSIONS OF MICHAEL JOSEPH BOYLAN

In December 1981, the Commission imposed suspensions on Michael Joseph Boylan, a Pasadena, California brokerage firm officer, for violating antifraud provisions in connection with the introduction of customer accounts to clearing brokers. Boylan failed to disclose material information concerning the accounts which indicated that there was a significant risk that they would not make prompt payment. He was suspended from any association with a broker-dealer for 90 days, and suspended thereafter from any such association as a financial principal for an additional period of nine months.

The Commission stayed Boylan's sanctions pending appeal. In March 1983, the Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit affirmed the Commission's order. The Commission has accordingly made Boylan's suspensions effective May 2, 1983. (Rel. 34-19671)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST GEORGE J. GASPER, OTHERS

The New York Regional Office announced that on April 20 a complaint was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York against George J. Gasper, Joseph F. Schreck, Todd B. Marsh, Lawrence K. Marsh, Eugene L. Hall, Kim B. Stires, Donald Ritger, Kenneth Leach, and Mark Yager. The complaint charges that the defendants violated the antifraud and tender offer provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, by causing to be purchased, and purchasing for their accounts and for the accounts of others, the common stock of Clark Oil and Refining Corporation, while in possession of confidential, material, non-public information during the period December 1979 through January 1980. The information allegedly concerned negotiations for the acquisition of Clark Oil by a private investment organization.

Simultaneously with the filing of the complaint, Schreck, Stires, T. Marsh, L. Marsh, Leach and Yager consented, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the complaint, to an order permanently enjoining them from further violations of Sections 10(b) and 14(e) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. These defendants also consented to disgorge trading profits realized by them and commissions earned on all their and their customers' transactions in Clark Oil stock. Yager, who had not effected any personal or family transactions, consented to disgorge commission earned on transactions by his customers. (SEC v. George J. Gasper, et al., 83-Civ-3037, CBM, S.D.N.Y.). (LR-9970)
