CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

DISTRICT COURT IN RHODE ISLAND DETERMINES DISGORGEMENT AMOUNT IN MACDONALD CASE

The Boston Regional Office announced that on June 13 following an evidentiary hearing on June 1, 1983, Judge Bruce M. Selya of the U.S. District Court in Rhode Island ordered that James E. Macdonald must disgorge "ill-gotten" profits of $6.50 per share ($18,037) plus interest of 12% per annum since 1976 (some $14,000) as a result of his purchase and sale of the stock of Realty Income Trust in 1975-1976 while in possession of material non-public information. At the time, Macdonald was Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Realty Income Trust.

The hearing followed a remand from an en banc panel of the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit on the question of the measure of disgorgement. Following a trial in 1981, the District Court ruled that Macdonald must give up all profits from his trades ("windfall" measure of disgorgement). The Circuit Court, although affirming the antifraud violations by Macdonald, differed on the measure of disgorgement: it ruled that the recovery should be limited to that point in time when the inside information became known in the marketplace. It was this key issue that was referred back to the District Court for redetermination. The Court found, in line with the Circuit Court's guidelines, that the inside information became known in the marketplace on January 9, 1976. (S.E.C. v. James E. Macdonald, Civil Action 81-1356, D.C.R.I.). (LR-10039)

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW ENTERED IN FIRST OPINION UNDER ACCOUNTING PROVISIONS OF FOREIGN CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT

The Atlanta Regional Office announced that on May 23 the Honorable Robert L. Vining, Jr., U.S. District Judge for the Northern District of Georgia, entered findings of fact and conclusions of law with respect to his March 29 Order, which directed that Final Judgments of Permanent Injunction be entered against defendants World-Wide Coin Investments, Ltd., Joseph H. Hale and Floyd W. Seibert, enjoining them from violating the following provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934: the accounting provisions of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 (FCPA); antifraud provisions; acquisition reports and tender offer provisions; periodic reporting and proxy soliciting requirements; stock ownership reporting requirements, and in addition, twelve Commission rules. Judge Vining also ordered an accounting, disgorgement of ill-gotten gains, and full disclosure.

In rendering the first opinion interpreting the accounting provisions of the FCPA, Judge Vining broadly construed the term "records" to include "virtually any tangible embodiment of information made or kept by an issuer". Judge Vining also held that the accounting provisions of the FCPA do not embody the requirements of materiality or of scienter. (SEC v. World-Wide Coin Investments, Ltd., et al., N.D.Ga., Atlanta Division, Civil Action No. C81-1642A.) (LR-10040)
