SEC AUTHORIZES FILING OF ACTIONS TO RECOVER UNPAID NASD SANCTIONS

The Securities and Exchange Commission and the National Association of Securities Dealers announced today that they are beginning a program to obtain payment of NASD-ordered sanctions from former registered representatives of broker-dealers Registered representatives should not be able to avoid paying a fine or providing restitution

Under the new program, the Commission will file applications in federal district court, pursuant to Section 21(e)(1) of the Exchange Act, seeking orders requiring payment of outstanding NASD sanctions that have been or will be affirmed by the Commission The Commission anticipates that following a summary proceeding it will obtain a court order that it or any party that would benefit from the payment, including the NASD, could use to pursue collection of the unpaid fine or restitution The Commission will also use this program to collect sanctions imposed by other self-regulatory organizations in appropriate circumstances

SEC General Counsel David Becker has said, "By seeking court orders requiring payment of NASD sanctions, the Commission will assure that persons sanctioned by the NASD will not be able to escape payment of fines or restitution orders " (Press Rel 2000-25)

CHANGE IN THE MEETING: NEW ROOM NUMBER

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

COURT HOLDS ATTORNEYS IN CONTEMPT OF ASSET FREEZE ORDERS; ORDERS THEM TO DISGORGE ILLEGALLY OBTAINED MONIES

The Commission announced that on February 28, 2000, the Honorable Christina A. Snyder of the Central District of California issued a Judgment Of Civil Contempt Against Attorneys Richard Sherman, Robert Young, Allison Arabian and Eric Mercer. The Court issued its contempt judgment based on findings that the attorneys violated asset freeze orders previously issued by the Court. Specifically, the attorneys received $98,980 of the over $830,000 fraudulently raised from investors by Defendants Peter Sacker, Jerry W. Anderson and Robert M. Kerns in violation of the Court's temporary restraining order issued September 22, 1997, and preliminary injunction entered October 16, 1997.

The Court ordered that within ten days the contemnor attorneys disgorge the following amounts that they received in violation of its asset freeze orders: Sherman is to disgorge $54,980, Young is to disgorge $17,500, Arabian is to disgorge $5,000, Mercer is to disgorge $21,500. The Court further ordered that each of the attorneys provide sworn accountings of monies they had received since issuance of the temporary restraining order. [SEC v. Whitworth Energy Resources, Ltd., Williston Basin Holding Corp., Amerivest Financial Group, Inc., Peter Sacker, Jerry W. Anderson, and Robert M. Kerns, Civil Action No. 97-6980 CAS, SHx, C.D. Cal.] (LR-16463)

SEC CHARGES JOHN PACOWTA, FORMER DIRECTOR OF CENTER FINANCIAL CORPORATION, WITH INSIDER TRADING

The Commission today announced the filing of insider trading charges against John J. Pacowta, a resident of Middlebury, Connecticut, and a former director of Center Financial Corporation, a bank holding company. The Commission alleged that Pacowta illegally bought Center Financial stock ahead of a public announcement by First Union Corporation on June 17, 1996, that it intended to acquire Center Financial via merger. According to the Commission, prior to his purchase, Pacowta attended a meeting of Center Financial's board of directors at which he learned that First Union was interested in acquiring Center Financial and that Center Financial's board of directors had voted to hold a special meeting the following week, with its investment bankers present, to discuss a possible sale or merger. Pacowta made an unrealized profit of $4,985.88 on his Center Financial purchase. Pacowta agreed, without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations, to pay a civil penalty of $4,985.88 and to the entry of an injunction prohibiting him from future violations. The Commission did not seek disgorgement because Pacowta already had paid to Center Financial more than the full amount of his ill-gotten gains due to a short-swing profit resulting from the same trade [SEC v. John J. Pacowta, Civil Action No. 300-CV-00426, JCH, D. Conn.] (LR-16464)

SEC CHARGES NICHOLAS MIHALAS, FORMER DIRECTOR OF CENTER FINANCIAL CORPORATION, WITH INSIDER TRADING

The Commission today announced the filing of insider trading charges against Nicholas M Mihalas, a resident of Kiawah Island, South Carolina, and a former director of Center Financial Corporation, a bank holding company. The Commission alleged that Mihalas illegally bought Center Financial stock ahead of a public announcement by First Union Corporation on June 17, 1996, that it intended to acquire Center Financial via merger. According to the Commission, prior to his purchase, Mihalas attended a meeting of Center Financial's board of directors at which he learned that First Union was interested in acquiring Center Financial and that Center Financial's board of directors had voted to hold a special meeting the following week, with its investment bankers present, to discuss a possible sale or merger. Mihalas made an unrealized profit of $175,085 on his illegal Center Financial purchase. Mihalas agreed, without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations, to pay $404,925.96 in disgorgement, prejudgment interest and civil penalties and to the entry of an injunction prohibiting him from future violations [SEC v. Nicholas M. Mihalas, Civil Action No. 2:00-0726-23, D.S.C.] (LR-16465)
