ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

COMMISSION SETTLES PUBLIC ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST BRIAN WALFISH

On May 30, the Commission instituted and simultaneously settled public administrative proceedings, pursuant to Sections 15(b) and 19(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act), against Brian Walfish (Walfish), a former registered representative at Wise Choice Discount Brokerage, Inc., a now defunct registered broker-dealer. In the Order, the Commission barred Walfish from association with any broker or dealer.

The Commission's Order finds that on June 30, 1999, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York enjoined Walfish from future violations of Sections 5(a) and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act, and Rules 10b-5 and 10b-9 thereunder, and ordered Walfish to disgorge $928,827.50 plus prejudgment interest of $75,337.55 and to pay a civil penalty of $10,000 (SEC v. Nichi Capital, et al., 98 Civ. 2218, CSH, SDNY). The Commission's complaint alleged that Walfish fraudulently offered and sold unregistered stock in Nichi Capital, Ltd. (Nichi) to investors both in a private placement and in a purported initial public offering (IPO). Walfish solicited investors based on oral and written misrepresentations concerning the purported IPO. The Order also finds that on October 15, 1999, Walfish pled guilty to one count of conspiracy to commit securities fraud in connection with conduct involving Nichi, as well as to three conspiracy counts in connection with conduct unrelated to Nichi (U.S. v. Bakal, 98 Cr. 329, SDNY, TPG) (Rel 34-42856, File No. 3-10211)

COMPLAINT CHARGES MICHAEL SHERMAN AND SCOTT SHERMAN WITH FRAUD

The Commission announced that has filed and simultaneously settled insider trading charges against two brothers who are the principals of a financial printing firm. The Commission's complaint alleges that the brothers sold short the stock of a public company client, Home State Holdings, Inc., while they were in possession of materially adverse non-public information about Home State's financial performance. The defendants charged today are Michael D. Sherman and Scott P. Sherman, both of Watermill, New York.

The Commission's complaint alleges that Michael Sherman and Scott Sherman are co-owners of Fillit Group, Inc., a company located in Bridgehampton, New York, that designs and produces annual reports for corporations. Fillit produced Home State's 1995 annual report, and was retained to produce Home State's 1996 report. On February 27, 1997, Home State informed Michael Sherman or Scott Sherman, that Home State was about to announce significant operating losses for the quarter ended December 31, 1996, and that Home State was therefore abandoning plans to prepare an expensive annual report. Later that same day, the defendants each sold short 5,000 shares of Home State common stock. Also on that day, the defendants tipped a relative who then sold short 5,100 shares of Home State common stock.

One day later, Home State issued a press release announcing its losses. By March 4, 1997, the second day of trading after the announcement, the price of Home State common stock had dropped 30 percent. On March 4, 1997, the defendants each bought 5,000 shares of Home State common stock to cover their respective short positions. Between March 3, 1997 and March 4, 1997, the defendants' relative bought 5,100 shares of Home State common stock to cover his short positions. As a result, the defendants and their relative obtained illicit profits totaling $37,700.

Simultaneously with the filing of the complaint, Michael Sherman and Scott Sherman, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the complaint, consented to the entry of final judgments enjoining them from future violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, and ordering them to pay a total of $37,700.00 in disgorgement plus $9,869.75 in prejudgment interest thereon and $31,350.00 in civil penalties.
