ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

COMMISSION REMANDS NASD'S KEIDAISH DECISION FOR STATUTORY DISQUALIFICATION

The Commission has remanded the decision of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. to statutorily disqualify Stephen L. Keidaish to associate with member firm Orosey & Pepe Capital Markets, Inc. based on a 1994 DUI felony manslaughter conviction.

The Commission found that although the NASD pointed out that Keidaish was still serving his probation, it did not discuss the risks of harm to markets or investors arising from Keidaish's felony. The Commission remanded this appeal for further proceedings. (Rel. 34-43555; File No. 3-10111)

FINAL JUDGMENT, ORDER OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION ENTERED, AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST DEAN TURNER

On November 14, the Commission instituted public administrative proceedings, pursuant to Sections 15(b) and 19(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, against Dean C. Turner (Turner), formerly a registered representative at a Troy, Michigan branch office of Dean Witter Reynolds, Inc. based upon Turner's conviction for violating two counts of the federal mail fraud statutes and on an Order of Permanent Injunction entered by consent against Turner on November 3, 2000, which enjoins him from future violations of Sections 5(a), 5(c) and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, and Sections 10(b), 15(a)(1) and 15(c)(1) of the Exchange Act and Rules 10b-5 and 15c1-2 thereunder. Both actions arose from Turner's sale of fraudulent promissory notes in Lease Equities Fund, Inc. (Lease Equities), a company based in Milford, Michigan.

The Order Instituting Proceedings states that the Commission's complaint underlying the Permanent Injunction alleges that Turner offered and sold $13.6 million of promissory notes issued by Lease Equities to Dean Witter customers by misrepresenting the use of funds, the source of funds to be repaid to investors, the risks of the securities, the collateral for the securities and the returns to be realized. The complaint also alleges that $10 million of principal on the notes was never repaid, that Turner falsely led investors to believe that he was acting on behalf of Dean Witter Reynolds, and that Turner did not disclose his ownership interest in Lease Equities or his status as an officer of Lease Equities and of one of its affiliates. The Order states that Turner, in consenting to the entry of the Permanent Injunction, neither admitted nor denied the allegations in the Commission's complaint. Turner recently began serving an 18-month prison term for his mail fraud conviction. A hearing before an administrative law judge will be scheduled to determine whether the allegations in the Order are true and what, if any, remedial sanctions are appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors against Turner. [SEC v. Dean C. Turner, et al., Civil Action No. 97-74810, USDC, E. Dist. Mich.] (LR-16799); Administrative Proceedings in the Matter of Dean C. Turner - (Rel. 34-43560; File No. 3-10362)

UPSTATE INVESTMENT ADVISER, PRINCIPALS SETTLE FRAUD CHARGES

Waltzer and Associates (Waltzer), a registered investment adviser, and its principals, Lewis N. Waltzer and Karney E. Waltzer, have settled charges that they defrauded Waltzer's clients. Each of the respondents consented, without admitting or denying the Commission's findings, to the entry of orders making findings, imposing remedial sanctions, and imposing cease-and-desist orders against them (Orders). In the Orders, the Commission found that, from at least January 1994 through August 1996, Waltzer and Lewis and Karney Waltzer defrauded clients by (1) making false performance claims; (2) failing to disclose that they received transaction-based compensation for selling certain securities and insurance contracts to their advisory clients; and (3) failing to disclose a prior Commission enforcement action against Waltzer and Lewis Waltzer. In addition, the Commission found that Waltzer, aided and abetted by Lewis Waltzer, failed to provide to clients a written disclosure statement known as Part II of Form ADV. Waltzer, which was located in Monticello, New York from 1985 until 1994, and in Newburgh, New York thereafter, ceased operations in August 1996.

Each of the respondents consented, without admitting or denying the Commission's findings, to the entry of orders requiring them to cease and desist from future violations and imposing certain other sanctions, as follows:

Waltzer consented to an Order directing it to cease and desist from committing or causing any violation and any future violation of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 (Securities Act), Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, and Sections 204, 205, 206(1), 206(2), and 206(4) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (Advisers Act) and Rules 204-3 and 206(4)-4 thereunder, and revoking Waltzer's registration as an investment adviser.

Lewis Waltzer consented to an Order directing him to cease and desist from committing or causing any violation and any future violation of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act, Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, and Sections 204, 205, 206(1), 206(2), and 206(4) of the Advisers Act and Rules 204-3 and 206(4)-4 thereunder, barring him from association with any broker, dealer, or investment adviser, prohibiting him from serving or acting as an employee, officer or director, member of an advisory board, investment adviser or depositor of, or principal underwriter for, a registered investment company or affiliated person of such investment adviser, depositor, or principal underwriter, and directing him to pay disgorgement and prejudgment interest in the amount of $50,000 and a civil penalty in the amount of $50,000. (Rels. 33-7914; 34-43561; IA-1908; IC-24738; File No. 3-10142)

Karney Waltzer consented to an order directing her to cease and desist from committing or causing any violation and any future violation of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act, Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, and Sections 205, 206(1), 206(2), and 206(4) of the Advisers Act and Rule and 206(4)-4 thereunder, barring her from association with any broker, dealer, or investment adviser, and prohibiting her from serving or acting as an employee, officer or director, member of an advisory board, investment adviser or depositor of, or principal underwriter for, a registered investment company or affiliated person of such investment adviser, depositor, or principal underwriter. The proceedings were instituted on February 7, 2000. (Rels. 33-7915; 34-43562; IA-1909; IC-24739; File No. 3-10142)
