RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

REGISTRATION OF FOREIGN INVESTMENT COMPANIES UNDER THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940

LIBRARY

In December 1974, the Commission requested comments on the issues involved in the registration of foreign investment companies under the Act. After consideration of the comments, the Commission has determined to consider any application filed on an ad hoc basis. The release sets forth certain conditions and guidelines for the assistance of any companies considering filing any such applications. (Rel. IC-8959)

ADOPTION OF NEW PARAGRAPH (J) UNDER RULE 204-2

The Commission announced the adoption, effective October 31, 1975, of a new paragraph (j) under Rule 204-2 under the Investment Advisers Act which requires each non-resident investment adviser (1) to maintain and preserve copies of his required books and records at a place within the United States and to file with the Commission a written notice specifying the address of such place, or (2) in lieu thereof to file with the Commission an undertaking to furnish copies of such books and records upon demand by the Commission. The rule is substantially similar to Rule 17a-7 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Non-resident investment advisers who, at October 31, are registered under the Investment Advisers Act, or have an application for registration pending, will have until November 30, 1975, to file the notice or undertaking required for compliance with Rule 204-2(j). However, all new applicants must file the notice or undertaking together with their applications for registration as investment advisers. (Rel. IA-447)

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the PBW submission within 30 days from publication in the Federal Register. DECISIONS IN ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

STANLEY T. TRASKA, LAS VEGAS ATTORNEY, RESIGNS FROM COMMISSION PRACTICE

The Commission has accepted the resignation of Stanley T. Traska, an attorney of Las Vegas, Nevada, from practice before the Commission.

The Commission had summarily suspended Mr. Traska from Commission practice because the United States Court in San Diego, California, had permanently enjoined him on consent from violating the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The Commission in the court action alleged that Traska had rendered opinion letters which contained false statements and without an adequate investigation of other basis to support the opinions expressed therein.

Mr. Traska had earlier requested the Commission to lift its order of suspension. His petition was, however, denied and the matter was set down for hearing. To settle the matter, Mr. Traska agreed to resign from Commission practice. (Rel. 33-5617)
