COURT ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS

U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

BERNARD BERGMAN, OTHERS ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on June 8 Federal District Court Judge Lawrence W. Pierce signed orders against Bernard Bergman, Stanley Bergman and Amram Kass, the remaining defendants in the Medic-Home Enterprises, Inc. action. The defendants consented to the entry of the orders without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint.

The order entered against B. Bergman, former chairman of Medic-Home, permanently enjoins him from violating the antifraud, proxy, reporting and tender-offer provisions of the securities laws. Pursuant to the order, which incorporates the provisions of certain undertakings by B. Bergman, B. Bergman is required to vote for the election of two independent directors appointed by Medic-Home pursuant to the terms of the Commission's settlement with the company and to cooperate with the Special Counsel who is conducting an investigation into certain transactions.

The order establishes procedures by which Medic-Home can dispose of claims against B. Bergman for all or part of the Commission's disgorgement claim of $143,600.

B. Bergman will also be subject to certain restrictions regarding his or his nominee's serving as an officer or director of Medic-Home and on his ability to vote as a shareholder on transactions in which he has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest.

Finally, the order prohibits B. Bergman, without permission of the Commission, from acquiring, except pursuant to a stock option dated August 23, 1977, Medic-Home securities except by way of stock split, stock dividend or other similar distribution for a period of two years.

The respective orders entered against S. Bergman and Kass, both former directors of Medic-Home, permanently enjoin S. Bergman and prohibits Kass from violating the anti-fraud, proxy, reporting and tender-offer provisions of the securities laws. Additionally, both S. Bergman and Kass, pursuant to certain court-ordered undertakings, are required to vote for the election of the two aforementioned independent directors and cooperate in the investigation being conducted by the Special Counsel. Moreover, Kass, who is an attorney, will not practice before the Commission for a period of at least one year. (SEC v. Medic-Home Enterprises, Inc., et al., U.S.D.C. S.D.N.Y., Civil Action No. 75-6227). (LR-8435)
