CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

ROBERT DEBIASSE SENTENCED

The Philadelphia Regional Office and the U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania announced that on February 26 Robert E. DeBiasse was sentenced by U.S. District Court Judge Joseph S. Lord, III, to three years imprisonment to be followed by five years probation. On December 2, 1987, DeBiasse pled guilty to two criminal counts - racketeering (RICO) and obstruction of a Commission investigation. The Commission had filed an injunctive action against DeBiasse and others on November 13, 1986, and DeBiasse had been indicted on that date on 25 criminal counts. Both actions arose from the financial fraud surrounding the initial public offering of Computer Input Services, Inc. (CISI) in April 1982. DeBiasse was president and chairman of CISI and sole shareholder before the public offering.

In addition to the guilty plea, DeBiasse agreed to forfeit $1 million to the United States pursuant to the RICO provisions, to be distributed to those victimized by the fraud. DeBiasse also consented to an injunction in the Commission's action, which was entered on December 2, 1987, permanently enjoining him from future violations of the antifraud, reporting, books and records, and internal controls provisions of the securities laws. (U.S. v. Robert E. DeBiasse, USDC EDPA, Criminal Action No. 86-471). (LR-11679)

JOHN E. WORTHEN INDICTED

The U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of California, the Denver Regional and Salt Lake City Branch Offices announced that a federal grand jury in San Diego, California returned a sealed indictment charging John E. Worthen, also known as John Walton of Salt Lake City, with 12 counts of criminal contempt. The indictment was unsealed on February 1. The indictment charges Worthen with conduct violating an injunction obtained by the Commission on July 10, 1974 [SEC v. Royal Airline, Inc., John E. Worthen, aka John Walton, et al., SDCA, Civil Action No. 74-202N], which enjoined him from future violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws.

The indictment alleges that Worthen, among other things, engaged in a scheme to defraud investors involving the sale of unregistered stock of Western Pacific Technology, Inc. and Nordic Limited, Inc., both Nevada corporations. Worthen allegedly manipulated the market price of the stock of both companies through a series of manipulative securities transactions using nominee accounts and false statements and omissions concerning the assets and operations of the companies.

A warrant was issued for Worthen's arrest. (U.S. v. John E. Worthen, aka John Walton, USDC SDCA, Criminal Action No. 87-1387N). (LR-11667)
