CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

INJUNCTION GRANTED AGAINST INTERNATIONAL QUARTER PHONES, INC., ET AL.

The Commission announced that on June 1 the Honorable Sidney A. Fitzwater, U.S. District Judge for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division, entered a Temporary Restraining Order against International Quarter Phones, Inc. (Quarter Phones) and Harold Michael Senna (Senna), the company's founder, president and chief executive officer. The order freezes the assets of Quarter Phones and Senna, prohibits the destruction of documents and enjoins Quarter Phones and Senna from future violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws.

The Commission's complaint alleged that the defendants fraudulently raised approximately $10 million through the sale of unregistered securities in the form of interests in coin operated pay telephones. The complaint further alleged that in connection with the offer, purchase and sale of these unregistered securities, Quarter Phones and Senna misrepresented and omitted to disclose material information including, among other things, the profitability and business prospects of Quarter Phones, contracts with third parties, Senna's criminal history, the use or application of investor proceeds, and the financial condition and results of operations of Quarter Phones. [SEC v. International Quarter Phones, Inc., et al, USDC, ND Texas, Dallas Division, Civil Action No. 3-93CV1052-D] (LR-13661)

PERMANENT INJUNCTION OBTAINED AGAINST VEE BALLARD

The Commission announced that on May 27, 1993 a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction was entered in the U.S. District Court for the District of Utah enjoining Vee Lynn Ballard from aiding and abetting in the violation of Section 17(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 17a-3 promulgated thereunder.

The complaint alleged that Vee Lynn Ballard aided and abetted Cannon Securities, a Salt Lake City, Utah broker-dealer, in violating the recordkeeping provisions of the Exchange Act. Specifically, the Commission alleged that Ballard, while a registered representative at Cannon, established fourteen customer accounts in names other than his own when, in fact, he was the beneficial owner of the accounts. The Commission further alleged that Ballard made sales of securities through these accounts.

Ballard consented to the entry of the injunction without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint. [SEC v. Vee Lynn Ballard, Civil Action No. 93-NC-090A, USDC D.UT, Northern Division] (LR-13662)

ENFORCEMENT ACTION AGAINST ROBERT FREEMAN

The Commission today announced the filing of an injunctive action against Robert M. Freeman, formerly a risk arbitrageur employed by Goldman, Sachs & Company, in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York. In its complaint, the Commission alleged that on January 8, 1986 Freeman violated Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder by selling options to purchase shares of Beatrice Companies, Inc. (Beatrice), after learning material, nonpublic information concerning the proposed leveraged buyout of Beatrice from Martin A. Siegel, an investment banker retained in connection with the transaction. The Commission further alleged that Freeman's trades enabled accounts under his control to avoid losses totalling approximately $548,000, because the price of Beatrice's securities declined when Siegel's information was disclosed publicly later that day.

Without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations, Freeman consented to the entry of a Final Judgment which enjoins him from violating Section 10(b) and Rule 10-5, and orders him to disgorge $1,104,043.52.00 in losses avoided and prejudgment interest. Freeman also consented to the entry of an administrative order which bars him from associating with any broker, dealer, registered investment adviser, investment company, or municipal securities dealer, but which allows him to reapply for association privileges after three years. Freeman previously pleaded guilty to one count of criminal mail fraud based on the trading that formed the basis of the Commission's action; for that offense, he served four months in prison and paid a fine of $1 million. [SEC v. Freeman, 93 Civ. 3806, MP, SDNY] (LR-13663)
