SEATTLE AREA INVESTMENT COUNSELOR ENJOINED FOR FRAUD

The Commission announced that on May 28, 1993 the Honorable Carolyn R. Dimmick, U.S. District Court Judge for the Western District of Washington, at Seattle entered a Final Order of Permanent Injunction against Gary V. Ingram enjoining him from future violations of the antifraud provisions found at Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. Ingram consented to the injunction without admitting or denying the violations.

The Commission's complaint alleged that Ingram defrauded a Seattle area couple and a Portland, Oregon investor of more than $1.3 million in connection with financial management and investment consulting services which he ostensibly was providing to them. After gaining their trust in his professional services, Ingram fraudulently sold their securities, wrongfully converted the proceeds to himself, and then concealed from the investors the fact that the majority of their securities had been disposed of.

The investigation was conducted jointly with the U.S. Attorney's Office and the Pension and Welfare Benefits Administration of the Department of Labor, with assistance from the Federal Bureau of Investigation. [SEC v. Gary V. Ingram, Civil Action No. C93-0732, W.D. Wash.] (LR-13680)
