ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

INITIAL DECISION SUSPENDS JAMES RYAN

Administrative Law Judge Max O. Regensteiner has issued an initial decision suspending James E. Ryan from association with a broker or dealer for three months. Ryan is vice-president of National Securities Corp., a Seattle broker-dealer. The decision is subject to Commission review on petition of a party or on the Commission's own initiative.

During the period in question (October 1978 - February 1979), Ryan dealt almost exclusively in low-priced mining company stocks traded on the Spokane Stock Exchange or in the Spokane over-the-counter market. According to the decision, he violated antifraud provisions of the securities laws by (1) recommending to customers the purchase of Nesco Mining Corp. stock without having an adequate basis for such recommendation and (2) selling various mining company stocks at prices not reasonably related to their market prices. Ryan was also found to have sold a block of Nesco stock, which had been acquired from the company's president, in violation of the Securities Act's registration requirements. Additionally, he was found responsible for violations of recordkeeping provisions involving a failure to note on customer order tickets the times when orders were received.

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

WILLIAM C. SIMPSON ENJOINED

The Denver Regional Office announced that on August 27 the Honorable Fred Shannon, Judge, U.S. District Court for the Western District of Texas, San Antonio Division, signed a Default Judgment against William C. Simpson of San Antonio, Texas, permanently enjoining him from violating the antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer for sale, sale or offer to purchase or purchase of fractional undivided interests in oil, gas or other mineral rights, or any other security whatsoever.

The complaint was filed on March 23, 1978 and Simpson was served with a summons and complaint on March 24, 1978. Simpson failed to file an answer by August 14, 1980 after he was ordered to do so by the court on July 15, 1980. (SEC v. Harry T. McClain, et al., Western District of Texas, Civil Action No. SA-78-105). (LR-9178)
