COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

GNMA STUDY SENT TO CONGRESS

The Commission and the Federal Reserve Board have transmitted to Members of Congress a joint study of the government-related securities markets, including a draft of legislation which would implement recommendations of the study.

The study was undertaken in January 1980 by the staffs of the Commission, the Federal Reserve Board and the Department of the Treasury, in response to an inquiry from Senator Harrison A. Williams, Jr. While the study and its recommendations have been endorsed by the Commission and the Federal Reserve Board, the Administration has not taken a position with regard to it.

Printed copies of the nearly 300-page study are expected to be available next month from the Commission's Office of Consumer Affairs and Information Services, and from the Federal Reserve Board. In the interim, it is available for inspection by the general public at the Commission's Public Reference Room, 1100 L Street, N.W., and copies may be obtained in person or by mail through the Public Reference Section at a cost of 10-cents per page. Members of the press may inspect a copy of the report at the Commission's Office of Public Affairs, 500 North Capitol Street, or at the Federal Reserve Board.

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

CHARLES S. ROSENBLUM ENJOINED

The Boston Regional Office announced that on December 2 a Judgment of Permanent Injunction was issued against Charles S. Rosenblum, a Massachusetts resident, by the Honorable Joseph L. Tauro of the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts, enjoining Rosenblum from violating the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the operation of South Shore Financial Associates, a real estate financing business located in Braintree, Massachusetts. Rosenblum consented to the entry of the Judgment without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint.

The Commission's complaint, filed on December 1, alleged, among other things, that the defendant sold over $3 million in unregistered securities in the form of promissory notes in connection with the operation of South Shore, that in connection with the sale of these securities the defendant made misrepresentations of material facts and omitted to state material facts concerning, among other things, the safety of the investment, the rate of return, and the profitability of South Shore, and that the defendant engaged in courses of business which operated or would operate as a fraud upon investors including, furnishing of information which misrepresented the extent of liabilities and net worth of South Shore, concealing from investors net losses in South Shore's operations, failing to inform investors of delinquencies on South Shore real estate loans, and failing to inform investors of foreclosure proceedings initiated by South Shore in connection with its real estate loans. (SEC v. Charles S. Rosenblum, U.S.D.C. D. Mass., Civil Action No. 80-2668). (LR-9255)
