ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

CBOE ACTION AGAINST LEON A. GREENBLATT, III AFFIRMED

The Commission has affirmed CBOE disciplinary action against Leon A. Greenblatt, III of Chicago, Illinois. Greenblatt is a member of a registered market maker on the Chicago Board Options Exchange, Inc. The CBOE had prohibited Greenblatt from entering into any opening market maker transactions for 10 consecutive days, and suspended Greenblatt's market maker registration on the Exchange for 34 calendar days.

The Commission found that, for five consecutive quarters in 1988 and 1989, Greenblatt violated CBOE rules that required market makers to conduct 75 percent of their contract volume within their appointed stations. During the five quarters, Greenblatt conducted between 15 and 35 percent of his contract volume within his appointed stations. In affirming the CBOE's sanctions, the Commission noted that the purpose of the 75 percent limitation was to cause market makers to concentrate on a limited group of options in order to assure adequate liquidity for all options classes and adequate market maker presence at all trading stations (Rel. 34-31619)

NASD ACTION AGAINST CLINGER & CO., INC. AND NORMAN E. CLINGER AFFIRMED

The Commission affirmed sanctions imposed by the NASD against Clinger & Co., Inc., a Houston, Texas brokerage firm, and Norman E. Clinger, its president and sole shareholder. The NASD censured applicants and fined them $5,000 jointly and severally.

During 1988, the firm claimed status as a broker-dealer requiring only $5,000 net capital and also claimed exemption from the customer protection rule, which required it to (1) effectuate all customer transactions through a specially-designated bank account, (2) transmit promptly all customer funds and securities, and (3) not otherwise hold funds or securities for or owe money or securities to customers

The Commission found that on four occasions in 1988 the firm improperly deposited customer funds into the firm's money market account rather than a Special Bank Account and did not promptly transmit some of those funds. It also improperly accepted $10,000 from a customer before receiving an order from that customer. In addition, the firm, through Clinger, conducted its business on five days during 1988 with net capital of less than $5,000.

In affirming the sanction assessed by the NASD, the Commission noted that applicants' handling of their customers' funds exposed those customers to undue risk. It stressed that the net capital and customer protection rules are fundamental requirements imposed on persons who engage in the securities business (Rel. 34-31620)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

COMPLAINT NAMES DANIEL TEYIDO AND JFM GOVERNMENT SECURITIES, INC.

On December 23, the Commission announced the filing of a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland against Daniel O. Teyido and JFM Government Securities, Inc. The complaint alleges that Teyido, who has also gone by the pseudonyms of Paul Palmer and Tim Calloway, and JFM violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Sections 10(b) and 15C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder in a scheme to defraud broker-dealer counterparties in trades of government securities.

According to the complaint, from March 1991 to the present, Teyido solicited numerous broker-dealers to engage in government securities transactions with JFM. In doing so, Teyido has, among other things, misrepresented that JFM is a legitimate, registered government securities dealer, which it is not, and used fabricated financial statements. [SEC V Daniel O. Teyido and JFM Government Securities, Inc., USDC MD, Civ. Action No L92-3614] (LR-13483)

JAMES O'HAGAN INDICTED ON CHARGES OF INSIDER TRADING

On December 17, James H O'Hagan was indicted on twenty counts of mail fraud, thirty-four counts of securities fraud, and three counts of money laundering arising out of his alleged illegal insider trading in Pillsbury securities. According to the indictment, beginning on August 29, 1988, O'Hagan purchased Pillsbury securities using nonpublic information about Grand Metropolitan, PLC's plans to commence a tender offer for Pillsbury common stock. O'Hagan allegedly obtained such information while he was a partner at Dorsey & Whitney, which Grand Met had retained as local counsel in its takeover efforts. O'Hagan sold his Pillsbury securities holdings at a profit of $4.3 million after Grand Met announced its takeover plans. The indictment also alleges that O'Hagan used a portion of his profits from his Pillsbury securities transactions to conceal his previous embezzlement of approximately $1 million of client trust funds.

In January 1990, the Commission filed a civil enforcement action against O'Hagan charging him with engaging in illegal insider trading in Pillsbury securities. The Commission's action has been stayed pending the conclusion of the criminal proceedings. [SEC v. O'Hagan, No. 3-90 Civil 16, D. Minn., RGR] (LR-13484)

COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST RODNEY SMITH AND NANCY REGGIANI

On December 23, the Commission announced the filing of a complaint against Rodney B Smith for violations of Sections 10(b) and 14(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) and Rules 10b-5 and 14e-3 promulgated thereunder, and against Nancy L. Reggiani for violation of Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder, in connection with trading by Smith in the securities of Boys Markets, Inc., a supermarket chain based in Los Angeles, California.

The complaint alleges that in late January or early February 1988, Reggiani obtained nonpublic information about a likely acquisition of Boys Markets through her employment at Boys Markets and that she tipped her brother-in-law, Smith, who traded in advance of the public announcement of the proposed Boys Markets acquisition, and gave a portion of his $49,993 profit to Reggiani.

Simultaneously with the filing of the complaint, Smith and Reggiani each consented to the entry of a permanent injunction against future violations of the federal securities laws, agreed to disgorge their trading profits ($46,793 by Smith and $3,200 by Reggiani) together with prejudgment interest, and pay penalties under the Insider Trading Sanctions Act of 1984.

This matter was referred to the Commission by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. [SEC v. Rodney B. Smith and Nancy L. Reggiani, District Court for the Central District of California, Civil Action No. 92 7521 DT, JGx] (LR-13485)
