ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

U.S. SECURITIES
EXCHANGE COMMISSION

PUBLIC RULE 2(e) PROCEEDINGS AGAINST ANDREW EPSTEIN

The Commission has instituted public Rule 2(e) proceedings against Andrew L. Epstein, a former partner in the New York City accounting firm of Frederick S. Todman & Company. The Order alleges that Epstein engaged in improper professional conduct during the 1984 audit of Bevill Bresler & Schulman, Incorporated (BBS), a registered broker-dealer formerly engaged in trading in government and municipal securities.

The Order alleges Epstein failed to discover and require disclosure of an approximately $29 million shortfall in collateral in trading accounts with a related party. The lack of collateral was evident from the related party's statement of accounts included in the audit workpapers. Epstein also failed to require disclosure of other material, related party accounts.

The Order also alleges that Epstein failed to discover and disclose a violation of the Commission's minimum net capital requirements (Rule 15c3-1) that would have caused BBS's surplus to fall below the required minimum by over $6 million. Other alleged audit and accounting deficiencies included misclassification of BBS's profits and losses, inadequate review of BBS's internal accounting controls, lack of disclosure of tax liability, and inability to determine safekeeping and segregation of customer owned securities. (Rel. 34-29894)

FREDERICK TODMAN & COMPANY CENSURED AND VICTOR MARCHIONI, CPA, SUSPENDED FOR BBS AUDIT

The New York City accounting firm of Frederick S. Todman & Company has consented to be censured and its partner, Victor M. Marchioni, has consented to be suspended for six months pursuant to Commission Practice Rule 2(e). The sanctions are due to improper professional conduct during the 1984 audit of Bevill Bresler & Schulman, Incorporated (BBS), a registered broker-dealer formerly engaged in trading in government and municipal securities.

Todman and Marchioni failed to either discover or require disclosure of an approximately $29 million shortfall in collateral in trading accounts with a related party and other material, related party accounts. The lack of collateral was evident from the related party's statement of accounts included in the audit workpapers.

The audit also failed to discover and disclose a violation of the Commission's minimum net capital requirements (Rule 15c3-1) that would have caused BBS's net capital to fall below the required minimum by over $6 million. Other audit and accounting deficiencies included misclassification of BBS's profits and losses, inadequate review of BBS's internal accounting controls, lack of disclosure of tax liability, and inability to determine safekeeping and segregation of customer owned securities. (Rel. 34-29895)

NASD ACTION AGAINST CHARLES ZANDFORD SET ASIDE

The Commission has set aside disciplinary action taken by the NASD against Charles Zandford of Rockville, Maryland, a former salesman for Prudential-Bache Securities, Inc. The NASD censured Zandford, and fined him $2,000.

The NASD found that in two instances Zandford improperly extended credit to a customer by advancing his own funds to pay for margin calls in the customer's account. The Commission found that Zandford advanced funds in reliance on Pru-Bache management, including the official in charge of margin requirements. Under the circumstances, the Commission concluded that Zandford did not engage in any conduct that was improper. (Rel. 34-29901)

JAMES MORPHEW BARRED

The Commission instituted public administrative proceedings pursuant to Section 17A(c)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) against James F. Morphew (Morphew), formerly an officer and director of Certificate Transfer Company, a transfer agent registered with the Commission pursuant to Section 17A(c)(2) of the Exchange Act. Morphew submitted an Offer of Settlement consenting to the entry of the Order which contain findings that, without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint on November 4. Morphew was permanently enjoined by final judgment of the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California, in the action styled SEC v. David D. Sterns, et al., Civil Action No. 91-1303-ER (Tx). The this action Morphew was permanently enjoined from violating or aiding and abetting violations of Sections 5(a) and 5(c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1933, and Section 17A(c)(2) of the Exchange Act, and Rule 17Ac2-1 promulgated thereunder. The Order permanently bars Morphew from association with any broker, dealer, municipal securities dealer, transfer agent, investment adviser, or investment company, provided that four years from the date of the Order Morphew may make application to become so associated.
