J. S. SECURITIES & EXCHANGE COMMISSION January 16, 1976

RECEIVED

RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

EXTENSION TO MARCH 31, 1976 OF CERTAIN ASPECTS OF THE FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND REPORTING PROGRAM PERTAINING TO TRANSACTIONS IN MUNICIPAL SECURITIES

JAN 19 1976

LIBRARY

The Commission announced the extension until March 31, 1976 of its previous interpretations respecting the application of Rules 17a-3, 17a-4 and 17a-11 to brokers and dealers effecting transactions solely in municipal securities. In Securities Exchange Act Release No. 11854 (November 20, 1975), the Commission adopted a financial responsibility and reporting program pertaining to transactions in municipal securities, including certain amendments, temporary amendments and interpretations to the uniform net capital rule (Rule 15c3-1), the customer protection rule (Rule 15c3-3), and other related financial responsibility and reporting rules. With respect to Rule 17a-3, the interpretations require brokers and dealers effecting transactions solely in municipal securities to make and keep current books and records sufficient to demonstrate their financial condition, to reflect the receipt and delivery of all funds and securities, and to reflect all customer activity. Rule 17a-4 is interpreted to require such brokers and dealers to preserve in an easily accessible place those books and records maintained pursuant to Rule 17a-3, as interpreted, and such other business records required to be preserved by Rule 17a-4. Paragraph (c) of Rule 17a-11 is interpreted to apply only to violations of Rule 17a-3, as interpreted.

Certain interested members of the public and the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board have requested that these interpretations be extended. The Board indicates that it has under active consideration certain proposals concerning books and records requirements which it expects to publish shortly. The Board anticipates that the proposed rules will be filed with the Commission by March, 1976 and will incorporate many of the provisions of Rule 17a-3 and Rule 17a-4 with modifications as appear appropriate. Under these circumstances, the Commission has determined that it is appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors to extend the aforementioned interpretations of Rules 17a-3, 17a-4 and 17a-11(c) to March 31, 1976.

The Commission reiterated its previous solicitation of public comment concerning the appropriate financial responsibility and reporting requirements for brokers and dealers effecting transactions in municipal securities. Comments should be submitted to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549, no later than February 29, 1976. All comments received will be subject to public inspection. (Rel. 34-12021)
