NCUA Board Cancels April Open Meeting

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (April 5, 2012) – The National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) Board agreed to cancel the open meeting previously scheduled for April 12.

The NCUA Board has now cancelled two of its first four open meetings this year.

NCUA will proceed with the closed Board meeting scheduled for April 12 to address two individual supervisory matters.

NCUA is the independent federal agency created by the U.S. Congress to regulate, charter, and supervise federal credit unions. With the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. Government, NCUA operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the deposits of nearly 92 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the overwhelming majority of state-chartered credit unions.
