

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AT NEW YORK CITY PRESENTS

Genealogy OPEN HOUSE October 12, 2010

10 A.M. Getting Started Online

New to NARA research? Learn about our major genealogical resources and receive hands-on instruction for using our Computer Research Room and accessing third-party, genealogy-based subscription sources.

10:30 A.M. How to search Federal Census Records Online

11 A.M. How to search Federal Passenger Arrival Records Online

11:30 A.M. How to search for Naturalization Records Online

Highlights of NARA records searchable via databases created by the German Genealogy & Italian Genealogy Groups. This session is presented by longtime NARA volunteer and genealogist Don Eckerle.

12 P.M. Lunch Break—on your own

1:30 P.M. Genealogy resources outside of NARA: Libraries and Local Governments

This lecture will review research libraries and archives. An overview of city, county, town, and village governments will be discussed along with examples of these records. This session is presented by Art Sniffin, professional genealogist, former NARA employee, and longtime NARA volunteer.

3 P.M. Behind-the-Scenes Archival Stack Tour highlighting some of NARA's treasures!

Full program runs from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M.

201 Varick Street, 12th Floor, New York City, NY

Space is limited. Please RSVP by October 8 to newyork.archives@nara.gov or call 866 -840-1752.

October is Archives Month. Program brought to you in support of New York Archives Week, October 10–15, 2010.

Archival staff and NARA volunteers will be on hand throughout the day to provide hands-on assistance and answer questions.

THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES AT NEW YORK CITY