This Guide is published by the Export Council of Oregon, SBA and the Portland Export Assistance Center as a quick reference tool. It is a compilation of local, regional and national export resources with a focus on financing to provide exporters in Oregon with current information.

The Portland U.S. Export Assistance Center (USEAC) helps companies that are export-ready and interested in expanding into international markets with marketing assistance; financing information and SBA export loan applications.

Export Trade Financing Issues

Export financing questions may pertain to methods of payment, payment options, risk assessment and mitigation, how to structure a transaction, how to find local contacts for export financing or how to apply for SBA export loans. Here's survey of the main issues:

- ❖ Payment method: May involve documentary letters of credit, documentary collections, wire transfers, or foreign currency exchange. The International Departments of major banks (page 17) assist the exporter with these services. If your bank of account does not have an international department, it still may have a correspondent banking relationship that provides these services. Contact the USEAC office (page 7) for Letter of Credit template and instructions. See also due diligence resources, page 18.
- ❖ Financing the export transaction: Requires identifying a source of working capital to fund the export transaction. The needed financing may be pre-shipment financing for the production cycle (materials, inventory, labor), post-shipment financing to extend credit terms, or both. Typically, such financing is available from the commercial lending departments of a bank, often a bank's Small Business Lending Divisions is the best place to begin. Early stage exporters may need a government-guaranty, i.e., SBA export loan guaranty, to get financing. See SBA programs, page 8. A few banks provide export financing through their international banking departments mainly for receivable financing and larger accounts.
- ❖ Extending credit to overseas buyers: Is less risky with proper due diligence on buyers and insurance. See the listing of specialized risk insurance brokers, page 19.

Buyer financing: For longer terms and/or larger transactions may be available through the Export-Import Bank of the United States (Ex-Im Bank) or, for agricultural / commodity financing, through the U.S. Department of Agriculture; see CCC information, page 15.

EXPORT LICENSING: Regulatory & Control Agencies

Export businesses don't need a separate "export" license aside from the local business license required for all businesses. While most products can be shipped abroad without special approval by the U.S. government, there are exceptions. These exceptions include prohibited countries, prohibited entities, both businesses and individuals, and prohibited products or goods that require an export license. Usually, the special licensing is for so-called dual-use products which have a military application; they require an application for a 'validated' export license. Included here is also the access point for temporary, duty free exports, the ATA Carnet.

1. Prohibited Countries

The Country Limitation Schedule (CLS) compiled by Ex-Im Bank identifies legally prohibited countries for U.S. exporters with the footnote #7; see http://www.exim.gov/tools/country/country_limits.html.

2. Prohibited Entities

The International Money Laundering Abatement and Anti-Terrorism Act makes it illegal for U.S. businesses to trade with prohibited companies and individuals. A list of these special designated nationals (SDN) is compiled by the Office of Foreign Assets Control, U.S. Treasury Department. For the list which is continuously updated, posted online and searchable, see <http://www.ustreas.gov/offices/enforcement/ofac/>.

3. Export Licensing for Controlled Products

For the classification of products, regulations for controlled products and countries, information on licensing and applications for a validated license of controlled products are handled by the Bureau of Industry and Security, U.S. Department of Commerce. For general information, see <http://www.bis.doc.gov/>.

Contact: For application information:

Western Regional Office, Bureau of Industry and Security, Newport Beach, CA
Tel: (949) 660-0144 Ext. 112 Fax: (949) 660-9347

4. Licensing for Military Products and Weapons

For military products, weapons, munitions and some gun components, the U.S. State Department has jurisdiction. For product classification and licensing information, including the new paperless arms export license application, contact <http://www.pmdtc.state.gov/> or the office in Washington, D.C.:

2401 E Street, NW, Washington, DC 20520
Tel: (202) 663-1282 Fax: (202) 261-8199

5. Temporary Export of Products (Duty Free), ATA Carnet

The Carnet allows for temporary duty free customs clearance of commercial samples, professional equipment and items for exhibitions and fairs into more than 75 countries. Carnets eliminate the payment of VAT and duties and act as a U.S. Customs registration. Carnets can be used for unlimited trips for a period of up to one year. Carnets are now available online; applications have a 24-hour turnaround. See <http://www.uscib.org/> and click on ATA Carnet Export Service.

SBA EXPORT FINANCE PROGRAMS

http://www.sba.gov/localresources/district/or/or_itresources.html

When exporters are not bankable without a government loan guarantee, the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) offers a guarantee of 90% to lenders on export loans in 2009. The loans have varying loan size limits with $2 million the maximum. Interest rates are market-based, (not subsidized) and negotiated between the bank and borrower. SBA fees vary by loan terms / amounts and for some loans may be waived during 2009. A personal guaranty is required and other conditions may apply.

ELIGIBILITY

- Meet SBA's size standards for small businesses
- Have been in business for at least 12 continuous months
- For all types of businesses, incl. service exporters
- Also businesses not directly exporting but who produce or sell product / services for export

Depending on the type of export financing, i.e., export transaction financing, export market development and start-up or long term financing for construction and equipment, four SBA loan programs are available.

A. Export Working Capital Program (EWCP)

<http://www.sba.gov/services/financialassistance/SpecialPurposeLoans/ewcp/index.html>

For single orders or multiple sales (line of credit) the Export Working Capital Program (EWCP) provides export working capital for pre-shipment or post-shipment financing or both for terms of 12 months or less. While the maximum SBA guarantee is $1.5 million, with an Ex-Im Bank co-guaranty, the loan limit is $2 million. It can be used for a Stand by Letter of Credit in bid bonds and performance guarantees. SBA's fee is ¼ %; the Guarantee 90%.

- Pre-shipment: for the manufacture of goods, to purchase finished goods or services for export. WIP eligible.
- Post-shipment: to finance accounts receivable resulting from export sales (180 days maximum).
- Combination: to finance both the acquisition or production of export goods and services and the resulting accounts receivable; especially well-suited for contract financing of export sales.

B. Export Express

<http://www.sba.gov/services/financialassistance/SpecialPurposeLoans/exportexpress/index.html>

For a variety of export financing, i.e., marketing, trade shows, transactions, equipment, expansion, etc., Export Express loans are available through designated SBA Express Lenders. As a sub-program of SBA Express these loans have the same expedited review; maximum loan size is $250,000. During 2009, the guaranty is 90% for lenders.

C. Export Expansion Loan – ITL

<http://www.sba.gov/services/financialassistance/SpecialPurposeLoans/tradeloans/index.html>

This program offers long term financing to support growing export businesses which can be used for fixed asset uses, i.e., construction, buildings, equipment, etc. Companies adversely affected by import competition are also eligible. SBA's usual guarantee of $1.5 million is increased for a combination term ITL loan and EWCP to $1.75 million with a sub-limit for working capital of $1.25 million.

D. 504 Loan Program

<http://www.sba.gov/services/financialassistance/sbaloantopics/cdc504/index.html>

Major business expansion, equipment, construction and modernization financing for long term (10 or 20 years) and fixed rates based on U.S. Treasury notes is available through SBA designated CDCs (Community Development Corporation) and requires at least 10% equity participation by the borrower.

U.S. TRADE & DEVELOPMENT AGENCY

<http://www.ustda.gov/>

The U.S. Trade and Development Agency (USTDA) provides grants to foreign countries for feasibility studies and other planning services for major projects in those countries. U.S. companies or consortia must perform USTDA-funded studies. The host country plays an active role in developing the scope of work for the study, selecting (on a competitive basis) the U.S. firm to complete it, and then monitoring the progress of the study. By participating in a USTDA-funded study, a U.S. company is usually able to establish a presence in the country and initiate what could well develop into a long-term relationship with host country officials and project managers leading to additional business opportunities.

USTDA operates in developing and middle-income countries. The types of projects USTDA funds include energy and natural resource development, transportation, telecommunications, and the environment. USTDA reviews project proposals to determine whether they meet project criteria, e.g., being an economic development priority for the country, creating U.S. export potential, and falling within funding availability.

Feasibility Studies

USTDA funds studies to determine the technical, economic and financial feasibility of major development projects. Feasibility studies provide detailed data that support decisions on whether and how to proceed with project implementation. Host countries using competitive procedures select feasibility study contractors.

Requests for proposals are listed in *Commerce Business Daily

*For on-line information on Commerce Business Daily, please go to <http://cbdnet.access.gpo.gov/>.

USTDA News and Information

USTDA publishes a newsletter called the USTDA News and Information, which provides U.S. suppliers and manufacturers with up-to-date information on USTDA supported projects. Small businesses may identify subcontracting opportunities through the publication. To sign up for a bi-weekly E-mail Update, see <http://www.ustda.gov/pubs/>.

U.S. AGENCY FOR INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

<http://www.usaid.gov/>

The U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) implements U.S. foreign economic assistance programs in nearly 100 countries throughout the developing world by providing loans and grants to eligible countries to support technical assistance projects and economic development programs which often require the procurement of services and/or commodities from U.S. suppliers.

USAID's Center for Trade and Investment Services promotes increased business activity between U.S. businesses and foreign entrepreneurs in Asia, the Near East, Africa, Latin America, Eastern Europe, and the Newly Independent States of the former Soviet Union. CTIS provides information on USAID-financed procurement opportunities.

COMMODITY CREDIT CORPORATION

FOREIGN AGRICULTURAL SERVICE, USDA

<http://www.fas.usda.gov/excredits/ecgp.asp>

Export credit guarantees for purchases of US agricultural commodities are offered through a variety of programs available through the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC). Coverage is typically 98% of the port value of the export item. Two major programs provide coverage for short term and medium term credits (<http://www.fas.usda.gov/info/factsheets/gsm102-03.asp>).

- (a) GSM 102 – for a period of 6 months to 3 years
- (b) GSM 103 – for more than 3 years

Under both programs, CCC underwrites credit extended by the private US banking sector for food and agricultural products sold to foreign buyers using dollar-denominated irrevocable letters of credit. The letters of credit must be opened by a CCC-approved foreign bank. Any product must be 100% US origin; manufactured inputs, i.e., pesticides, fertilizers, machinery, etc., are not covered.

Steps for Reviewing CCC Export Credit Guarantee Program Eligibility:

1. Identify current CCC coverage for export product and target country.
2. Identify banks in importing country that are CCC approved.
3. Identify participating US bank.
4. Request letter of credit for transaction from eligible foreign bank.
5. Apply for CCC approval.

EXPORT CREDIT INSURANCE

Export Credit Insurance is specialized insurance to protect against non-payment due to the commercial and/or country risk when selling on open account terms into export markets. Commercial coverage protects against a buyer's nonpayment and political coverage protects against default due to war or adverse sovereign actions. Export credit insurance may give exporters a competitive advantage and lenders will often add insured accounts receivables to a customer's borrowing base, thereby increasing the availability of working capital financing. Private sector and government policies are offered through brokers.
