 CIVIL ACTION NO. _____

Order

LOGGED

STATUTORY EX PARTE RESTRAINING ORDER FREEZING ASSETS, PRESERVING RECORDS, AND ALLOWING ACCESS TO RECORDS

Plaintiff, the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC"), has filed a complaint for permanent injunction and other relief, and moved ex parte, pursuant to Section 6c of the Commodity Exchange Act ("Act"), 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1 (2002), for a Statutory Restraining Order. The Court, having considered the CFTC's Complaint, Motion for Statutory Ex Parte Restraining Order Freezing Assets, Preserving Records, and Allowing Access to Records ("Motion"), the memorandum in support of the Motion, and all other evidence filed and presented by the CFTC, and having heard the arguments of Plaintiff's counsel, finds that:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and over the subject matter of this action pursuant to Section 6c of the Ac, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1 (2002). Venue lies properly within this District pursuant to Sections 6c(e) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(e) (2002).

2. There is good cause to believe that defendants have engaged, are engaging, and are about to engage in acts and practices constituting violations of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §§ 1, et seq. (2002).

3. There is good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable damage to the Court's ability to grant effective final relief for customers in the form of monetary redress will occur from the sale, transfer, assignment, or other disposition by

1 defendants of assets or records unless defendant are immediately restrained and
 2 enjoined by Order of this Court.

3
 4 4. Good cause exists for the freezing of defendants' assets and for entry of
 5 an order that prohibits defendants from destroying records and prohibits defendants
 6 from denying agents of the CFTC access to inspect and copy records.
 7

8 5. This a proper case for granting a statutory restraining order ex parte to 9 preserve the status quo, to protect public customers from loss and damage, and to
 10 enable the CFTC to fulfill its statutory duties.
 11

12 DEFINITIONS

13
 14 For the purposes of this Order, the following definitions apply:

15 6. The term "document" is synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to 16 the usage of the term in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a), and includes, but is 17 not limited to, writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, audio and video
 18 recordings, computer records, and other data compilations from which information
 19 can be obtained and translated, if necessary, through detection devices into
 20 reasonably usable form. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate document
 21 within the meaning of the term.
 22
 23

24
 25 7. "Assets" means any legal or equitable interest in, right to, or claim to,
 26 any real or personal property, including but not limited to: chattels, goods,
 27 instruments, equipment, fixtures, general intangibles, effects, leaseholds, mail or 28
