

INTRODUCTION
FOR INAFI' MAOLEK & PATRICK M. WOLFF

Inafa' Maolek Conciliation: Since 1983 this non-profit corporation on Guam has been dedicated exclusively to providing full service conflict resolution programs for the western Pacific region.

Outreach activities include Mediation, Restorative Justice, Peer Mediation, Conflict Coaching, Peace Theatre, Violence Prevention workshops for schools and Dispute Management workshops for worksites. Case referrals come from Superior Court judges, private attorneys, Guam Power Authority and other employers, churches, non profit organizations, and schools.

Attorney Patrick Wolff, founder of Inafa' Maolek and its Executive Director for 25 years and now its President Emeritus, started arbitrating in 1975, mediating in 1982. Since 1983 he has trained hundreds of mediators on Guam and elsewhere. This retired criminal justice professor, who maintains a active law practice, teaches University of Guam courses on "Restorative Justice", "Conflict Coaching", and "Conflict Resolution in Schools". Wolff has done outreach presentations in Micronesia (Kosrae, Chuuk, CNMI, Yap, Pohnpei) and in Asia (Malaysia).

Wolff also handles multi party mediations, conflicted ethnic riot cases, and workplace conflict.
