The Secret

Techniques you'd use for any reference query can work in an area not familiar to you.

Military Reference ABC

A. REFERENCE INTERVIEW

Clarify the question and any requirements or limitations

- Is this a DOD interest, service specific or subject specific?
- Is this current information or specific time frame in past?
- Ask for terms, organizations, any information your patron may have

Military Reference ABC

B. RESEARCH

TOPIC AND TERMINOLOGY

- Defense specific terminology – separation rates, stop-loss or involuntary extension
- Unknown Acronyms – FAR (Federal Acquisition Regulation; Federal Aviation Regulation)
- Start with DOD dictionary and official sources, then wikis, websites, portals

Military Reference ABC

B. RESEARCH

FINDING RESOURCES

Organizations- who would care or gather information/statistics ?

- US Government Manual, Defenselink, organization website
- Commercial sources for org charts & directories
- May need to drill down within organization

Military Reference ABC

B. RESEARCH

FINDING RESOURCES

Think of who reports on the topic

- May be an organization like a think tank, association, advocacy group
- GAO, CRS, inspector general or audit agency for controversial topics
- Dissertations

Military Reference ABC

B. RESEARCH

FINDING RESOURCES

Think of who reports on the topic

- Is this topic likely to be in open sources or restricted in some way?

Military Reference ABC

B. RESEARCH

FINDING RESOURCES

- Specialized databases – DOD and commercial, open source or restricted
- Special libraries or collections – DOD, think tanks, universities

Military Reference ABC

B. RESEARCH

FINDING RESOURCES

- Search by .mil domain for more focused results
- Search by .gov domain
- Site map and site search within sites

Military Reference ABC

B. RESEARCH

FINDING RESOURCES

- RSS feeds – Blog feed, MyiGoogle
- Social Networking sites
- Virtual reality – Second Life
- Podcasts

Military Reference ABC

C. REALLY STUCK?

- Network the question
- Join Military Libraries Division and post to list.

At the top, there is a navigation bar with the following links: MERLN Home, About, Digital Collections, Issues at a Glance, Military Policy Awareness Links \(MiPALs\), Publications, RSS, and White Papers. Three red boxes highlight these three links. Purple arrows point from these boxes to the corresponding sections on the main page. The main page features a 'Welcome to MERLN' heading, a 'What is RSS?' link, and a 'New on MERLN:' section with several news items. On the right side, there are links for 'MERLN Group Catalog', 'Public Search', 'Member Search', 'List of Members', 'Search Tips', 'MERLN-Net Login', and 'Tutorials'. The left side of the page has a sidebar with 'Quick Links to U.S. Policy Statements - MiPALs' and 'Regional Policy Overviews'.

Main Content:

Welcome to MERLN

MERLN is home to the Military Policy Awareness Links - MiPALs - which provide direct access to defense-related U.S. policy statements on selected key topics. Access the MiPALs through the quick links at the left side of the screen or the Military Policy Awareness Links \(MiPAL\) tab at the top of the screen.

Track updates to the MiPALs by using the "Rich Site Summary \(RSS\)" link in the menu bar at the top of the screen.

New on MERLN:

January 2010 - A new category has been added to MERLN's Haiti Military Policy Awareness Links page. The new category focuses on disaster relief and rebuilding efforts in the aftermath of the devastating earthquake that struck Haiti on 12 January. Visit the Haiti MiPAL for the latest statements on U.S. assistance efforts and news and analysis on the situation in Haiti.

September 2009 - The MERLN staff welcomes participants in the 2009 International Alumni Reunion and Defense Symposium to Fort McNair.

April 2009 - The inaugural edition of MERLN's new alert service, Issues at a Glance, is now available, featuring a comprehensive selection of resources on piracy off the coast of Somalia. Pulled together on one page for easy access are U.S. policy responses and recommendations, as well as websites and reports providing information on the international response, the scope and consequences of piracy, and suggestions for effective strategies to combat it.

April 2009 - The Digital Collections from the Library at the United States Military Academy at West Point are now available on MERLN's Digital Collections Page. The collection includes extensive documentation of the history of West Point, the U.S. Military Academy, and Academy alumni in a rich collection of books, manuscripts, and photographs.

March 2009 - At the 2009 Computers in Libraries conference, the MERLN team demonstrated a pilot project to build a full-text searchable database featuring MERLN's comprehensive collection of policy statements from the White House, Department of Defense, and State Department tracing the evolution of U.S. involvement in Iraq beginning with the buildup to the 2003 invasion and continuing on to the present day. Be sure to visit our pilot project often as our collection continues to grow.

The MERLN Digital Collections is a portal to unique military collections that have been digitized by MERLN participants. It contains student papers, lectures, conference proceedings, personal paper collections, reports and legislation. These collections are a significant source for research and scholarship on military topics.

Admiral Bates Papers

The personal papers of Rear Admiral Richard W. Bates (1892-1973) cover the years 1915-1973 and consist of correspondence, subjects files, writings, speeches, and miscellaneous items. [Naval War College]

Air University \(U.S. Air Force\) Research Studies

This database contains information on all research being conducted at Air University (AU) and provides on-line access to over 2,500 selected papers written by faculty and students at AU or enrolled in the Air Force Fellows Program. [Air University]

Army JAG Corps Historical Monographs

Official history of the Army JAG Corps and other studies of judge advocates. [U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's Legal Center & School Library]

Command & General Staff College Archival Collections

Five archival collections are available in full text. These include CGSC Annual Reports 1882-1936; Infantry and Cavalry School Lectures 1902-1910; Notebooks of COL Edmund J. Lilly (P.O.W. of the Japanese during World War II); Papers of MAJ Earl and Florence Hallgren (WWII); the Joseph J. Koch Collection; Diaries of Karl D. White, a soldier in the Philippine Insurrection. A number of finding aids to other collections are available on line. [Command & General Staff College]

Command & General Staff College Digital Library

The Combined Arms Research Library (CARL) digital collections, housed in CARL's Digital Library, contain these titles: Master of Military Art and Science Theses; School of Advanced Military Studies Monographs; World War II Operational Documents; Military History, 1900-1939; General Military History; Stability and Support Operations; Fort Leavenworth History; obsolete military manuals; and Operational Leadership Experience, an archive of firsthand, multi-service accounts from military personnel who planned, participated in, and supported operations in the Global War on Terrorism. [Command & General Staff College]

Command & General Staff College Historical Publications

The Combat Studies Institute is the historical arm of CGSC. It has published over a hundred works dealing with land warfare at the tactical and operational levels. The collection includes subject bibliographies, short monographs, and complete books. Digital versions of many of these works are available, and it is the aim of CGSC that all be digitally available in the near future. [Command & General Staff College]

Conduct of the Persian Gulf War

The Persian Gulf War was the first major conflict following the end of the Cold War. The victory was a triumph of Coalition strategy, of international cooperation, of technology, and of people. A proper understanding of the conduct of these military operations the extraordinary achievements and the needed improvements is an important and continuing task of the Department of Defense. This report discusses the conduct of hostilities in the Persian Gulf theater of operations. [National Defense University]

Donovan Research Library Digitized Monograph Collection

Donovan Research Library is currently in the midst of transitioning its massive 10,000+ collection of student papers to digital format. This collection includes after action reports, command diaries, case studies, battle accounts, and first-hand experiences from U.S. Army personnel during World War I, World War II, the Korean War, the Vietnam War, and other conflicts following 1980. It represents the intellectual talent of research and education that soldiers receive from the faculty and staff at the U.S. Army Infantry School and its divisions. [U.S. Army Infantry School]

ABREMA - Activity Based Risk Evaluation Model of Auditing

ABREMA is a normative model of assurance auditing that has been developed on the WWW for use as an aid in the teaching of introductory financial statement auditing. Although the pages in the ABREMA site do not refer to the auditing standards of any particular country or community, the model is generally consistent, unless otherwise noted, with International Standards on Auditing issued by the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board (IAASB) of the International Federation of Accountants. These International Standards on Auditing are referred to in the ABREMA pages with the prefix ISA. Notice: The information contained within this website is not official United States Government policy and cannot be construed as official in any way, nor does the Department of Defense exercise any editorial control of the information on this website.

Acquisition Central

ACQUISITION CENTRAL is hosted by IAE (Integrated Acquisition Environment), the E-Gov Initiative that is streamlining the federal acquisition process. Acquisition Central hopes to reach out to help every member of the acquisition community by providing one website for all things acquisition. From here you can learn about regulations, systems, resources, opportunities, and training.

Acquisition Community Connection \(ACC\)

The ACC is the collaborative arm of the AT&L Knowledge System that complements the existing information resources located on the AKSS. The ACC consists of knowledge communities whose goal is connecting people with know-how.

Acquisition Management

Purpose, People, Products! This is the front door to the organization; mission; products; customers, and frequently asked questions of the Acquisition Systems Management Defense Acquisition Board (DAB) Executive Secretary. Develops, evaluates, and recommends management policies and procedures governing the operations of the entire DoD acquisition system for Secretary of Defense and USD (AT&L) approval. Identifies major Defense Acquisition Programs to the USD(A&T) and recommends those for either Defense Acquisition Board (DAB) (ACAT ID programs) or component oversight (ACAT IC programs). Ensures proper operation of the DAB and timely support from its Integrated Product Teams (IPTs).

Accessing Talent: The Foundation of a U.S. Army Officer Corps Strategy

Authored by Colonel Casey Wardynski, Major David S. Lyle, Lieutenant Colonel (Ret) Michael J. Colarusso.

Accessing Talent: The Foundation of a U.S. Army Officer Corps Strategy, is the fourth of six monographs focused upon officer talent management in the U.S. Army. In it, the authors continue their examination of how the U.S. Army accesses, develops, retains, and employs officer talent. In particular, they focus upon the ways in

SIGAR's archive of all reports to date – Quarterly Reports to Congress, Audit Reports, Oversight Mission and Plans, Inquiry Letters, and Congressional Testimonies

QUARTERLY REPORTS TO CONGRESS

SIGAR's Quarterly Reports to Congress will be published 30 days following the end of each fiscal-year. These reports summarize SIGAR findings including audits, inspections, investigations, and analysis of data and developments related to the Afghanistan reconstruction progress. The activities of SIGAR during each quarter and updates on the various SIGAR initiatives will also be reported.

About the AFHRA

Air Force Historical Research Agency

The Air Force Historical Research Agency is the repository for Air Force historical documents. The Agency's collection, begun in Washington, DC, during World War II, moved in 1949 to Maxwell Air Force Base, the site of Air University, to provide research facilities for professional military education students, the faculty, visiting scholars, and the general public. It consists today of over 70,000,000 pages devoted to the history of the service, and represents the world's largest and most valuable organized collection of documents on US military aviation.

Online Library of Selected Images

The Online Library is the Photographic Section's readily accessible index to Naval and maritime history pictures.

Each entry provides a thumbnail image, a caption and the appropriate credit line. "Click" on the thumbnail to access a larger (average 50KB to 150KB) 96 dpi digital image that can usually fit on letter-size paper.

To the best of our knowledge, all Online Library pictures are in the public domain and can therefore be freely downloaded and used for any purpose without requesting permission.

For additional Information, see: Scope and Limitations of the Online Library.

If you require higher resolution reproductions than the Online Library's digital images, see: How to Obtain Photographic Reproductions.

Afghan Flag Flies Over Marjah

A young boy smiles as the Afghan flag flies once again over the town of Marjah in the Nad-e Ali District of Helmand province. The flag was raised yesterday in a ceremony involving Helmand governor Gulab Mangal, community officials, and Afghan and ISAF security partners. The flag-raising symbolized the return of government authority in the community, a focal point of governance activities since the start of Operation Moshtarak.

Regarding U.S. Acquisition and Use of Cyberattack Capabilities

Cyberattacks--actions intended to damage or adversary computer systems or networks--can be used for a variety of military purposes. But they also have application to certain missions of the intelligence community, such as covert action. This book considers all of these applications from an integrated perspective that ties together technology, policy, legal, and ethical issues.

American taxpayers spend over $100 million a year to fund the Congressional Research Service, a "think tank" that provides reports to members of Congress on a variety of topics relevant to current political events. Yet, these reports are not made available to the public in a way that they can be easily obtained. A project of the Center for Democracy & Technology through the cooperation of several organizations and collectors of CRS Reports, Open CRS provides citizens access to CRS Reports already in the public domain and encourages Congress to provide public access to all CRS Reports. Introducing the Nafziger Collection of Orders of Battle

Looking for historical wargaming resources?

The Combined Arms Research Library is pleased to announce the Nafziger Collection of Orders of Battle which contains a compilation of orders of battle from 1600 to 1945. Sources range from published works to primary archival documents. Most orders of battle break down to the regimental level and many contain information regarding the availability of strength figures and artillery equipment.

The collection is available for searching at <http://www.cgsc.edu/carl/nafziger.htm>.

Available also is a pdf index of the over 7900 orders of battle to assist in searching.

This brand new, freely available resource, was made possible by the generosity of George Nafziger.

DoD Official Policy on New/Social Media

The Department of Defense released its official policy on new/social media today. The policy (Directive-Type Memorandum 09-026), which is effective immediately, states that the default for the DoD non-classified network (the NIPRNET) is for open access so that all of DoD can use new media. This is DoD's first official policy on new media. Prior to today, the Services and other DoD components developed and implemented their own ad hoc policies — some banning it all together. Under this new policy, there will be open and consistent access across the board, but prohibited content sites (gambling, pornography, hate-crime activities) will still be blocked. Also, Commanders at all levels and heads of DoD components will continue to keep networks safe from malicious activity and take actions, as required, to safeguard missions.

DoD Announces New Policy on Social Media

Finally, after months of waiting and anticipation, the Department of Defense has announced its policy on "Responsible and Effective Use of Internet-Based Capabilities." Below is the official release posted around 1:00 EST today.

48

Share

Today the Department of Defense released a policy memorandum regarding the safe and effective use of Internet-based capabilities, including social networking services (SNS) and other interactive Web 2.0 applications.

The memorandum makes it policy that the DoD non-classified network be configured to provide access to Internet-based capabilities across all DoD components. Commanders at all levels and heads of DoD components will continue to defend against malicious activity on military information networks, deny access to prohibited content sites (e.g., gambling, pornography, hate-crime related activities), and take immediate and commensurate actions, as required, to safeguard missions (e.g., temporarily limiting access to the Internet to preserve operations security or to address bandwidth constraints).

The directive is consistent with the increased security measures that the Department has taken to secure its networks and reinforces existing regulations related to ethics, operations security, and privacy.

"This directive recognizes the importance of balancing appropriate security measures while maximizing the capabilities afforded by 21st Century Internet tools," said Deputy Secretary of Defense William J. Lynn III.

Use of Internet-based capabilities, including SNS, have become integral tools for operating and collaborating across the DoD and with the general public. Establishing a DoD-wide policy ensures consistency and allows for full integration of these tools and capabilities.

The new policy memorandum is available at: <http://www.defense.gov/NEWS/DTM%2009-026.pdf>.

What are your reactions to the new policy? Leave us your thoughts in the comments section.

How Scientists Are Protecting Sol

Published on February 28th, 2010

We've recently explored how the Defense Department supports scientific research in our planet's most extreme environments like Antarctica. But how is science helping to keep our servicemembers safe in return?

Today's LAB TV episode tells the story of scientists at the Army Natick Soldier Research, Development and Engineering Center who are studying the best ways to help soldiers endure challenging climates and extreme temperatures.
