

Deanna Dick

Agency Lead Negotiator
Bemidji

Email: Deanna.Dick@ihs.gov

Deanna Dick is Cherokee and an enrolled member of the Muscogee Creek Nation of Oklahoma. She joined the IHS Bemidji Area office as the Agency Lead Negotiator in October 2010. Previously, she had worked at IHS Headquarters as a Program Analyst and Special Assistant in the Office of the Director and served as Acting Deputy Director for the Office of Management Services during the IHS Headquarters reorganization. Before joining IHS, she worked as a statistician for the National Center for Health Statistics, Centers for Disease Control. Ms. Dick provides support and service to 34 federally recognized Tribes and Urban programs in the Bemidji Area. She serves as the ALN to 11 Tribes that provide health services through Title V Self-Governance Compacts and funding agreements. She also serves as the Contract Proposal Liaison Officer to the P.L. 93-638 Title I Tribal programs and the Project Officer to four P.L. 94-437 Title V Urban programs. She obtained her AB from Dartmouth College and holds a Masters in Social Work from Washington University in St. Louis and a Masters in Health Administration from the University of Washington, Seattle. Ms. Dick has been certified as a member of the Senior Executive Service (SES) having successfully completed the Department of Health and Human Services' SES Candidate Development Program.

