See INA 101(a)(10) and INA 221(f)

INA 101(a)(10)

(10) The term "crewman" means a person serving in any capacity on board a vessel or aircraft.

INA 221(f)

f. Each nonimmigrant shall present or surrender to the immigration officer at the port of entry such documents as may be by regulation required. In the case of an alien crewman not in possession of any individual documents other than a passport and until such time as it becomes practicable to issue individual documents, such alien crewman may be admitted, subject to the provisions of this title, if his name appears in the crew list of the vessel or aircraft on which he arrives and the crew list is visaed by a consular officer, but the consular officer shall have the right to exclude any alien crewman from the crew-list visa.
