

The $1.95 increase for music royalties is just a ploy for Sirius XM to get a rate increase that they promised would not happen for three years after they merged> Subscribers increase should not be allowed to be more than sirius xm increase< which if calculated with half a percentatge comes to only six cents per month> a far cry from a dollar ninety five increase>