

November 20, 1972

MR. PRESIDENT: no

It occurs to me that since you have cancelled your trip to Florida that you and the family might want to go to the Eisenhower Theatre (Kennedy Center) to see JOCKEY CLUB STAKES. It is supposed to be a great comedy (British) and is not trying to promote some cause or other.

One review of the play said: "A pleasant evening in which the only complications are too many chuckles and some deep-seated laughs.

RmWoods

A
I don't want to go to the Center for anything at any time unless it is an event
I have to participate in