

Tom Szlosek
Vice-President and Controller

Tom Szlosek is Vice-President and Controller of Honeywell and reports to Dave Anderson, Senior Vice-President and CFO. Tom is located in the Morristown Headquarters and his team is responsible for all external financial reporting, the maintenance and testing of internal controls (including Sarbanes Oxley requirements), providing advice and support to the SBG's and for various initiatives, principally involving functional excellence and acquisition and divestiture activity.

Prior to joining Honeywell, Tom spent eight years with General Electric Company, where he held various finance leadership roles, including CFO of GE Medical Systems Asia (Tokyo based) and CFO of GE Consumer Finance Europe (Dublin, Ireland based). He was in the audit practice with Price Waterhouse for 10 years before joining GE.

Tom resides in Green Brook, New Jersey with his wife Sheryl and three children, Carissa (10), Eric (8) and Jack (4). His leisure activities include running and coaching various youth sports teams.