INSTRUCTIONS

General Instructions

Use Standard Form 115 (obtainable from supply depots of the Federal Supply Service - General Services Administration) and the continuation sheet Standard Form 115a (obtainable from the Record Disposition Division, Office of Federal Records, Centers National Archives and Records Service, Washington, D.C. 20408) to obtain authority to dispose of records or to request permanent retention of records. Detach the fifth copy from the card and keep as our reference copy. Submit the first four copies of the set to the National Archives and Records Service. One copy will be returned to the agency as notification of items that are "unfit for disposal", items withdrawn, or not approved for disposal. It will be marked "Part 1 of 115 required" and other C. items will be marked "unaccompanied by a no disposition" or "overruled".

Specific Instructions

Entries 2 and 3 should show what agency the records if released, the organization on the form and should be in name of the department or independent agency and its major and minor subdivisions.

Entries 4 and 5 should indicate the period to which it relates regarding the records should be inserted.

Entry 6 should be signed in ink on the front of the card by a representative of the number of records being disposed of. It should be inserted.

Box A should be checked if the records may be disposed of immediately. Box B should be checked if continuing disposal authority is requested or if permanent retention is requested. Only one box may be checked.

Entry 7 should contain the numbers of the items of records identified on the form in sequence i.e. 1 2 3 4 etc.

Entry 8 should show what records are proposed for disposal.

James P. Palmer
SSA Records Officer
Gene Cicero
OCO Representative

Center headings should indicate what office's records are involved if all records described on the form are not those of the same office or if they are records created by another office or agency.

An identification should be provided of the types of records involved if they are other than textual records, for example if they are photographic records, sound recordings, or cartographic records.

An itemization and accurate identification should be provided of the series of records if it is proposed for disposal or retention. Each series should comprise the largest practical grouping of records organized logically related materials that can be treated as a single unit for purposes of disposal. Component parts of series may be listed separately, numbered consecutively as far as possible under the general series.

A statement should be provided showing when disposal is to be made of the records thus:

If immediate disposal is requested of past accumulations of records, the inclusive dates during which the records were produced should be stated.

If continuing disposal, if requested for records that have already laid in, or continue to accumulate the retention period may be expressed in days, months, etc., or in case of future accumulations, a future date at present that is to determine the retention period more objective and definite. If disposal of the records is contingent upon their being microfilmed or otherwise processed, records on such media, the retention period should read "until certain that reproduced copies or microfilms have been made in accordance with GSA regulations and are adequate". Dates for the paper records. Also the provisions of FPMR § 101-11.5 should be observed.

Entries should be checked if samples are submitted for an item. However, samples of the records are not required unless they are requested by the NARS appraiser if an item has been previously submitted the relevant job and item number should be entered.
