STIPULATED ORDER OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION

Plaintiff the United States of America has filed a Complaint for Permanent Injunction and other relief in this matter against Defendants Carole Exantus and JS Corporation, a/k/a J's Corporation, JS Unlimited Corp., and J'S Unlimited Corp. ("J's Corporation").

Without admitting or denying the allegations in the Complaint, Defendant Carole Exantus has consented to entry of this Stipulated Order of Permanent Injunction, and waives the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law. Exantus further understands that this permanent injunction constitutes the final judgment in this matter, and waives any rights she may have to appeal from the this judgment.

NOW, THEREFORE, and for good cause shown, it is accordingly ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that:

Pursuant to I.R.C. §§ 7402, 7407, and 7408, Exantus, individually and doing business as J's Corporation, or any other entity, and her representatives, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and anyone in active concert or participation with her, are permanently enjoined from directly or indirectly acting as a federal tax return preparer, or requesting, assisting in, advising or directing the preparation or filing of federal tax returns for any person or entity other than herself, or appearing as a representative on behalf of any person or entity whose tax liability is under examination or investigation by the Internal Revenue Service or the Department of Justice;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Exantus shall contact by mail (or by e-mail, if a mailing address is unknown) those persons and entities whose mail addresses or e-mail addresses she possesses and who have, since January 1, 2007, paid or otherwise retained her to prepare their income tax returns, and provide those persons and entities with a copy of this permanent injunction, and to file with the Court, within 60 days of the date the permanent injunction is entered, a certification signed under penalty of perjury stating that she has done so to the extent of her ability;

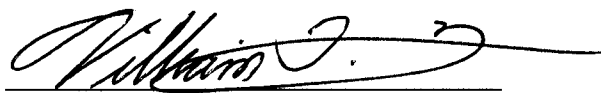

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Exantus shall produce to counsel for the United States a customer list including the names, addresses, e-mail addresses, telephone numbers, and social security or tax identification numbers, of all persons and entities for whom she has such information and who have, since January 1, 2007, paid or otherwise retained her to prepare their income tax returns, and to file with the Court, within 60 days of the date the permanent injunction is entered, a certification that she has done so to the extent of her ability;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that The United States is permitted to engage in post-judgment discovery to ensure compliance with the permanent injunction;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Court shall retain jurisdiction over this action for purposes of implementing and enforcing this injunction; and

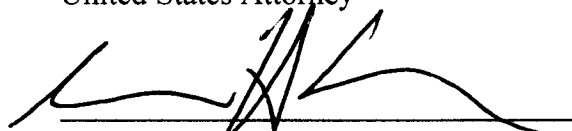

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to Rule 65(d)(2), F. R. Civ. P., counsel for the United States is authorized to arrange for personal service of this order on the Exantus.

SO ORDERED this 29th day of JUNE, 2009

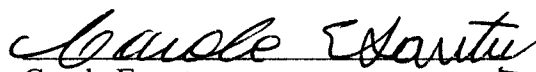

United States District Judge
