1. Purpose..... 2
2. Policy 2

1. Purpose. The National Weather Service’s (NWS) Pacific Region field offices include two Weather Forecast Offices (WFOs), one NWS Weather Service Office (WSO), five Micronesian WSOs, two Data Collection Offices (DCOs), plus other non-meteorological related offices. These field offices have diverse, and often, different missions and customer requirements than field offices within the contiguous United States (CONUS). Therefore the need for Statements, Summaries, Tables Products within the NWS Pacific Region are limited and tailored to customer requirements.

2. Policy. Pacific Region offices listed below will issue the products specified according to policy set forth in NWSI 10-501.

- a. Public Information Statement (Product Category PNS): All Pacific Region offices.
- b. Regional Weather Summary (Product Category RWS): None.
- c. Regional Weather Roundup (Product Category RWR): WFOs Guam and Honolulu.
- d. Regional Maximum/Minimum Temperature and Precipitation Table (Product Category RTP): WFOs Guam and Honolulu.
