

Travel Immunizations

May 2008

www.vaccines.mil

Across

- 3 Growth medium for yellow fever vaccine. (4)
- 4 Monovalent Hepatitis A vaccine is a _____ shot series. (3)
- 7 Natural host and reservoir for S.typhi. (6)
- 11 The third dose of JE-VAX should be given at least _____ days prior to expected travel. (3)
- 12 Yellow fever is a _____ vaccine. (4)
- 13 The booster for the _____ typhoid vaccine is needed every two years. (11)
- 16 A rare, neurologic adverse reaction in infants who receive the Yellow fever vaccine. (12)
- 19 The Hepatitis A vaccine should be started at least one month before _____. (6)
- 21 Manufactures oral vaccine Vivotif; Berna _____. (7)
- 23 Yellow fever vaccine is recommended for those _____ months and older traveling to an endemic area. (4)
- 24 Yellow Fever vaccine is required for this group of Servicemembers. (7)
- 25 This type of mosquito transmits the Japanese encephalitis virus. (5)
- 26 Japenese encephalitis virus is _____ borne. (8)
- 29 Dosage for 19 year old receiving the Hep A vaccine. (5)
- 31 CDC resource for travel immunizations. (10)
- 33 _____ is GlaxoSmithKline's brand name of the Hepatitis A vaccine. (6)
- 34 JEV is recommended for travel to the rural area of Indonesia and _____. (4)
- 35 JE-VAX is used for active immunization against Japanese encephalitis in people _____ year(s) of age and older. (3)
- 36 GlaxoSmithKline's Hepatitis A Hepatitis B combination vaccine. (7)

Down

- 1 Ten days after vaccination the yellow fever _____ becomes valid. (11)
- 2 Merck's brand of Hepatitis A vaccine. (5)
- 3 The pediatric dosage for Hep A vaccine is for children aged 12 months to _____ years. (8)
- 4 JE-VAX is a _____ shot series. (5)
- 5 Hepatitis A is spread via the fecal - _____ route. (4)
- 6 Drawn to determine level of antibodies for Hepatitis B. (5)
- 7 _____ is vital to stop the spread of S. typhi. (11)
- 8 DoD agency that tracks global health issues. (5)
- 9 The dosage schedule for JE-VAX is 0, __, 30 days. (5)
- 10 An abbreviation for the Hepatitis B virus (3)
- 14 Symptoms of _____ fever may include: weakness, loss of appetite, stomach pains, and headache. (7)
- 15 Yellow fever is not spread by _____ to person contact. (6)
- 17 Hepatitis A is a serious _____ disease. (5)
- 18 Typhoid vaccine for children 2 yrs and older. (8)
- 20 Is yellow fever a bacteria or virus?. (5)
- 22 Symptoms of yellow fever can be similar to this vaccine preventable disease. (9)
- 25 While traveling, only eat foods that have been thoroughly _____ to avoid getting S. tyhpi. (6)
- 26 Typhoid fever is common in the developing world and it affects 21.5 _____ people a year. (7)
- 27 People taking sulfonimides or antibiotics should not be administered this brand of typhoid vaccine. (7)

- 37 The three R's of travel immunizations: Routine, Recommended, and _____. (8)
- 28 Active duty military deployed to endemic areas are considered at _____ risk for acquiring Japanese Encephalitis. (4)
- 30 After receiving JEV patients should be observed for _____ minutes. (6)
- 31 Aventis Pasteur's brand of yellow fever vaccine. (5)
- 32 An allergy to _____ yeast is a contraindication to receiving the Hepatitis B vaccine. (6)

