

Overview of the National Response System

This is an overview of the NRS in powerpoint format. This educational and outreach tool was prepared by the National Response Team's Response Committee and provides information on the most important and interesting aspects of the National Response System. Areas discussed are: Authorities, Organization and Components, Concept of Response, Funding, Preparedness and Response Assets (including Special Forces.)