

1 QUALIFICATION STATEMENT OF

2 KIMBERLY A. LEATHLEY

3 Witness for the Bonneville Power Administration

4 Q. Please state your name, employer, and business address.

5 A. My name is Kimberly A. Leathley. I am employed by the Bonneville Power Administration
6 (BPA), 905 NE. 11th Avenue, Portland, Oregon.

7 Q. In what capacity are you employed?

8 A. I am an Account Executive in the Bulk Power Marketing group of the Power Business Line
9 (PBL).

10 Q. Please state your educational background.

11 A. I received a B.S. degree in Economics with a minor in Mathematics from Willamette 12 University in 1991. My field of concentration was econometrics.

13 Q. Please summarize your professional experience.

14 A. From January through December 1990, I worked as the Assistant Economist to the Oregon
15 State Economist in the Office of Economic Analysis, State of Oregon Executive 16 Department. In this capacity, I assisted in the development of the Governor's 17 Recommended Budget.

18 In June 1991, I began work at BPA in the Economic Forecasting section of the 19 Division of Power Forecasting. In that capacity I worked on various forecasting issues and 20 conducted analysis and forecasts of employment, population, income, and other 21 demographic indicators. I assisted the load-forecasting group in integrating my analysis and 22 forecasts into the Pacific Northwest (PNW) load forecasts for use in the Whitebook. I was 23 also responsible for all BPA economic impact analysis involving the PNW high technology
24 industry, the Boeing Company, and the State of Washington.

1 In 1993, I joined the BPA team responsible for developing BPA's Marketing Plan.
2 In this capacity, I conducted and coordinated analysis as well as developed competitive
3 assessments for BPA's market (customer) segments.

4 In 1994, I was selected as an Associate Account Executive (AE) and relocated to 5 Boise, Idaho. In this capacity I assisted the AEs responsible for public utility customers in 6 eastern Oregon, southeastern Washington, and southern Idaho. I coordinated and developed
7 load forecasts, economic analysis, and competitive assessments. Further, I served as the 8 liaison between BPA's field offices and the group responsible for BPA's non-generating
9 public customer market segment. In this capacity, I developed power products and rate 10 impact assessment tools.

11 In July 1995, I returned to Portland, Oregon, as an AE to assist the Senior AE for the 12 west-side investor-owned utilities (IOU). In this capacity, I was responsible for all
13 economic and financial analysis associated with BPA's power and transmission business
14 transactions with Puget Sound Power and Light, Portland General Electric, and PacifiCorp.
15 Further, I led the BPA technical team responsible for the development and reconciliation the 16 first Operating Plan for the Third AC Intertie owners. In addition, I negotiated BPA's 1996
17 power sales agreement and related agreements with Pacific Northwest Generating 18 Cooperative and its member-utilities.

19 In 1996, I assumed full responsibility for BPA's power business with several Pacific
20 Northwest IOUs, Nevada and Arizona IOUs, several marketers and five southern California
21 municipalities. In this capacity, I am currently responsible for developing and assessing
22 financial and economic analyses; negotiating and implementing power sales transactions;
23 developing, writing, and implementing contracts; developing and implementing bulk power
24 marketing strategies; and, PBL policy development.

25 In addition to my current responsibilities as an AE, in April 1998, I assumed the lead
26 responsibility in the PBL for the development and implementation of the proposed

1 settlement of the post-2001 Residential Exchange Program in the Subscription Strategy
2 (December 1998). This responsibility includes working with a broad array of BPA's
3 constituencies including customer groups, interest groups, and state representatives.

4 Q. Please state your experience as a witness in previous proceedings.

5 A. I have not been a witness in previous proceedings.
