Office of the Comptroller of the Currency
Office of Thrift Supervision

December 17, 2010

MEMORANDUM TO: CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

FROM: Jennifer Kelly, Senior Deputy Comptroller
Office of the Comptroller of the Currency

Thomas A. Barnes, Deputy Director
Office of Thrift Supervision

SUBJECT: OCC/OTS Informational Sessions

The Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) and Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS) will sponsor a series of informational sessions around the country addressing the integration of the OTS into the OCC. OCC and OTS representatives from the local geographic area will be in attendance at each session to discuss what federally-chartered savings associations should expect from this change in their primary regulator and other topics of interest.

The sessions are filling quickly, but we still have plenty of slots available and hope you will be able to attend. If you have already submitted your registration form in response to Jennifer Kelly's November 22, 2010 letter, no further action is needed.

If you would like to register, please complete and return the attached registration form by December 31st, indicating which session you plan to attend and who from your company will be attending. The registration form details the dates and locations of the informational sessions. You are free to choose the location and date that is most convenient for you. The OCC/OTS session will run from 8:30am to 2:15pm, with a session led by Federal Reserve representatives beginning at 2:45pm for those who are interested in learning more about the transition of savings and loan holding company supervision. The OCC and OTS will also host a reception on the prior evening from 5:00pm to 7:30pm.

In order to keep the size of these gatherings small enough to encourage an open and frank dialog, we are limiting each institution to two representatives. You are cordially invited to bring either a member of your board or another member of your management team.

Also, please feel free to suggest topics and questions that you would like to be addressed at this meeting on the RSVP form.

If you have any questions, please contact Barbara Jennings with the OCC at 202-874-4707.
