

Renate W. Chasman Scholarship for Women 2012 Competition

About the Scholarship

Sponsored by Brookhaven Women in Science of Brookhaven National Laboratory (BNL), the Renate W. Chasman Scholarship encourages women to pursue a career in the natural sciences, engineering, or mathematics. The award honors the late Renate Chasman, a noted woman physicist at BNL. A one-time award of $2,000 will be made directly to the recipient, to be applied towards expenses associated with an academic program pursued on a half time or greater basis.

Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible to receive this award you must be:

- A "re-entry" woman - one who has returned to school to pursue her education following an interruption.
- A citizen of the United States or a permanent resident alien with alien registration number.
- A resident of Long Island in New York State (i.e. Nassau County, Suffolk County, Brooklyn, or Queens).
- Accepted for credit into a degree-oriented program in the natural sciences (e.g., chemistry, physics, biology), engineering, or mathematics, at an accredited educational institution.
- Entering the junior or senior undergraduate, or first-year graduate level.

Instructions to Applicants

- Fill out this form completely; do not substitute a resume for any of the information requested. You may insert an extra page if additional space is required.
