

COMMUNIQUE

The legal advisers of the People's Republic of China, the United States of America, France, the United Kingdom, and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics met in Paris on 12 and 13 February 1990.

They continued the discussions held during their first meeting in Geneva in November 1989, regarding the ways of providing for more frequent recourse to the International Court of Justice, as part of the development of international law. These consultations will continue over the months to come.

###