

State of Georgia } ss.
County of Richmond }

Be it remembered that on the fifth day of November Eighteen hundred and fifty eight personally appeared before me William M. Volt Justice of the Superior Court of the Middle Judicial District of said State which embraces the said County of Richmond James John Harrell, Newton & John D. Pratt who each and all being duly sworn upon oath saith that that they knew personally one Edmund Dye a Mulatto of African descent who belongs to Pindrick Lambark of the city of Augusta in said County and State - that he owes labor and service to said Lambark as a Slave by the laws of said State of Georgia one of the United States of America - and which said Slave has escaped from the said Master and has fled as they are informed to the State of New York in other of the said United States - They further aver and say upon oath that said Mulatto is they should think about
