Have you obtained all required State, Federal or foreign government approval to conduct the activity you propose? Please be aware that there may be other requirements necessary to conduct this activity such as an import permit, collection permit, permission to work on Federal lands, Federal bird banding permit, Corps of Engineers permits, Environmental Protection Agency NPDES permits, State, county or local permits, etc.

- Yes. Provide a copy of the approval(s). List the State, Federal or foreign countries involved and type of document required. Include a copy of these documents with the application.
- I have applied. List the State, Federal or foreign countries involved and type of documents required. Provide the reasons why the permits have not been issued _____.
- Not required. The proposed activity is not regulated.

Application Processing Fees

The application processing fee for a new Incidental Take permit, or to renew/re-issue an existing valid permit, is $100. If permit amendment is required at a time other than renewal/re-issuance, the processing fee is $50.

Check the appropriate box below and enclose check or money order payable to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service in the amount of

- $100 for a new permit
- OR
- $100 to renew/re-issue my existing valid permit (with only minor changes such as updating my name and address) using my current application package on file.
- OR
- $50 to make a substantive amendment (with major changes) to my existing valid permit [50 CFR 13.11(d)(2)].

If the information in your current application package on file has changed in a manner that triggers a major amendment or a change not otherwise specified in the permit, then you must apply for an amendment to your valid permit. For example, such major changes may include changes in location, activity, amount or type of take, or species to be covered by the permit. Please contact our Ecological Services Field Office located closest to your proposed activity for technical assistance in making this determination. The contact information for our Ecological Services Field Offices can be found on the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service’s office directory web page at <http://www.fws.gov/offices/directory/listofficemap.html>

Please check the type of amendment you are requesting --

- add species (specify) _____
- add a geographic area                       change in personnel
- other (specify) _____

If this application includes transfer or succession of a valid Incidental Take permit, please check the box below:

- Transfer or succession of a valid Incidental Take permit associated with a HCP using the current application package on file. No application fee is required.

Application Processing Time

To expedite a final decision on your application, you are urged to coordinate with us as soon as possible for guidance in assembling a complete application package. If you are renewing or amending a valid permit, your complete application package must be received at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the valid permit. This time period begins when we receive a complete permit application package and does not include any time required for requesting clarification or additional information about your application.

The time required to process an application for an Incidental Take permit will vary depending on the size, complexity, and impacts of the HCP involved. Procedurally, the most variable factor in application processing is the level of analysis required for the proposed HCP under the National Environmental Policy Act (e.g., whether an application requires preparation of an Environmental Impact Statement, Environmental Assessment, or whether a categorical exclusion applies), although other factors such as public controversy can also affect application processing times. The target processing timeline from when we receive a complete application package to our final decision on a permit application is: up to 3 months for low-effect HCPs, 4 to 6 months for HCPs with an Environmental Assessment, and up to 12 months for HCPs with a 90-day comment period and/or an Environmental Impact Statement. Although not mandated by law or regulation, these targets are adopted as U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service and National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS/NOAA Fisheries) policy and all offices are expected to streamline their Incidental Take permit programs, and to meet these targets to the maximum extent practicable.

The information provided in your permit application will be used to evaluate your application for compliance with the Endangered Species Act, its implementing regulations (which may require a 30 day public comment period), and with U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service policy. Receipt and possession of a permit under the Endangered Species Act should be regarded as a privilege, as we must balance permit issuance with our duties to protect and recover listed species.

Up-to-date annual reports and any other required reports under your valid permit(s) must be on file before a permit will be considered for renewal, re-issuance or amendment.

If your activities may affect species under the authority of the National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS/NOAA Fisheries), then you may need to obtain a separate permit from that agency. In addition we share jurisdiction with NMFS/NOAA Fisheries for sea turtles (e.g., we evaluate applications for permits to conduct activities impacting sea turtles on land, and NMFS/NOAA Fisheries evaluates applications for permits to conduct activities impacting sea turtles in the marine environment). To apply for a permit to conduct activities with sea turtles in the marine environment or other species under NMFS/NOAA Fisheries jurisdiction, please contact them via their permit web page at <http://www.nmfs.noaa.gov/pr/permits/>

We cannot issue an Incidental Take permit under Section 10(a)(2)(A)(i) of the Endangered Species Act unless you submit a conservation plan that specifies the impacts that are likely to result from the incidental take associated with your activity.

Our general permit regulations at 50 CFR 13.12(a)(9) allow us to collect such other information as we determine that is relevant to the processing of a permit application. Before you submit an application for an Incidental Take permit, we may require that you conduct biological surveys to determine which species and/or habitat would be impacted by the activities sought to be covered under the permit. Biological surveys provide information necessary to develop an adequate HCP, and to assess the biological impacts of the proposed activities. In addition, the information provided in a biological survey can reduce the applicant's risk of take under Section 9 of the Endangered Species Act by ensuring that affected species and/or habitat are identified and appropriately covered under the permit.

You are required to obtain a Scientific Purposes, Enhancement of Propagation or Survival permit (commonly called a Recovery permit) from us before engaging in any biological survey activities that would take listed species. Contact our Ecological Services Field Office closest to the location of your activity to obtain technical assistance in determining the need for both a biological survey and a Recovery permit for your survey activity. The contact information for our Ecological Services Field Offices can be found on the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service's office directory web page at <http://www.fws.gov/offices/directory/listofficemap.html>

If a biological survey is required, you will need to send us your complete Recovery permit application package at least 3 months prior to commencement of survey activities to facilitate processing of your Recovery permit application. The Recovery permit application is designated as U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service form # 3-200-55 and can be found on our Endangered Species permit web page at <http://www.fws.gov/forms/3-200-55.pdf>.

We maintain a list of Recovery permittees (such as biological consultants) who have authorized the release of their contact information to third parties for conducting biological surveys on a contract basis. This list is provided to the public at the discretion of each U.S.

Fish and Wildlife Service Regional Office as time and workload allow. Please be aware that this list does not represent an endorsement by us of any particular permittee.

*****
If you are not applying as an individual but as a business, corporation, institution, or non-Federal public agency (block B. on page 1 of the application), the person to whom the permit will be issued (e.g., the landowner, president, director, executive director, or executive officer) is legally responsible for implementing the permit. Although other people under the direct control of the permittee (e.g., employees, contractors, consultants) receive third party take authorization in their capacity as designees of the permittee, the individual named as the permittee ultimately is legally responsible for the permit and any activities carried out under the permit except as otherwise limited in the case of permits issued to State or local government entities under 50 CFR 13.25(e).

Often this is the preparer of the application.

The application processing fee is assessed to partially cover the cost of processing a request. The fee does not guarantee the issuance of a permit. Fees will not be refunded for applications that are approved, abandoned, or denied. We may return fees for withdrawn applications prior to any significant processing occurring.
- Documentation of fee exempt status is not required for Federal, tribal, State, or local government agencies; but must be supplied by those applicants acting on behalf of such agencies. Those applicants acting on behalf of such agencies must submit a letter on agency letterhead and signed by the head of the unit of government for which the applicant is acting on behalf, confirming that the applicant will be carrying out the permitted activity for the agency.
