

Section by Section

PREVENTING RESTRICTIONS ON DATA CENTER LOCATIONS

To promote efficiency and innovation, this proposal, except where expressly authorized by federal law, would bar U.S. states from passing a law or adopting a regulation that would require private sector data centers to be located in that state as a condition of doing business. Data centers that serve solely governmental purposes could be required to be within the state.