#	Topic
1	Introductions WFEC Charter Description: Review the WFEC Charter to highlight why WFEC was created, authorities, and purpose. Review and agree on business rules and guidelines. Desired Outcome: Agreement on WFEC business rules and guidelines Key Discussion Points: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • From an NWCG perspective how do we relate to WFEC? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Just as WFEC takes direction and guidance from WFLC, NWCG will take direction and guidance from WFEC ○ WFLC directed WFEC, in July 2010, to look at the organization of NWCG ○ The current NWCG charter was signed by the FEC Chair, ITC and NASF ○ Since WFEC is the group that replaced the FEC, WFEC will take on the same responsibilities
2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We will work with the FACA Attorney's to clearly define the roles and responsibilities • The DFO has to be present for each WFEC meeting • However, if a member is absent, as long as there is a balance of participation, the meeting can continue • The DFO should participate in every Sub-committee meeting if possible. • The charter does not address alternates. There will not be alternates. If there are alternates, those members would have to go through the white house vetting process Decisions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. WFEC will address establishing NWCG as a sub-committee. Some current NWCG business may not be WFEC business. Actions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. NWCG will evaluate its membership to ensure that there is appropriate representation to accomplish its roles and responsibilities.

3	FACA and Ethics Description: Briefing on the requirements and restrictions related to the Federal Advisory Committee Act and related ethics regulations. Desired Outcome: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Understanding of requirements, restrictions, and responsibilities of WFEC as a FACA-chartered group. 2. Understanding of requirements, restrictions, and responsibilities of WFEC's members as members of a FACA-chartered group. Key Discussion Points: The DOI FACA Attorney (Cindy Cafaro) and Ethics (Kim Hintz) provided the following information to address the members' roles and responsibilities as they serve on the FACA committee. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kim <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Everyone has been designated as a representative ○ You are here representing a particular bias ○ Refer back to the charter - #13 ○ You cannot participate in specific contracts that you have a direct financial interest in that comes before the committee (as a member of the committee) ○ This does not apply to the overall discussions related to allocation of government funds at the high level • Cindy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Review of why FACA was passed ○ Provides for public participation ○ When does FACA apply <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Establish manage or control a group that gives advice to the federal government ▪ Advisory ▪ Government is not necessarily committed to using the advice ▪ Discretionary committee established by the two secretaries. There is a cap on the number of FACA committees. This points to how important this group is. ○ Public comments are up to the DFO to manage the time ○ DFO – Roy will call and be present for all WFEC meetings ○ FACA groups automatically terminate at 2 years unless the committee's charter is renewed ○ FACA sub-committees <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Not advising the government – it is advising WFEC ▪ The sub-committees do not have to have charters, balance of membership, etc. because they are not a FACA group ▪ Does not have to be made up of WFEC members ▪ Ideas for sub-committees need to go to the DFO from WFEC ○ Public availability of FACA Committee and subcommittee records ○ The public can request any of the documents, presentations, etc. from WFEC ○ Keep your committee business separate from your other business ○ Be cautious of reply-all – may be interpreted as having a WFEC meeting • Any additional questions, send those on to Roy, as the DFO, who will touch base with either Kim and/or Cindy • Question from Bill – If a sub-committee provides a report to WFEC, does it need to be posted?

6	Round Robin <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Glenn Gaines – spending more time developing virtual classes • Ryan Yates – Looking forward to the Regional Steering Committee Meetings in May – NACo has a conference the third week in May – would be a problem to have the regional meetings – The county commissioners would not be available. • Jim Karels – Improve the ability to hear and interact will help • Jim Erickson – none • Bill Kaage – March NWCG monthly meeting – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Approved the final version of the Interagency Safety Accident Investigation Guide – working on rolling that forward – bureaus may choose to use this outside of fire ○ FEMA's National Integration Center – working with them extensively on All Hazard issues ○ Putting together a task group to look at NWCG membership given its charter and MOU <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Kirk – clarified that NWCG membership does not have to reflect the membership of WFEC ▪ Bill – issue is using some identified criteria for membership inclusion • MAC – Thanks to the Secretaries for recognizing the need for having this committee. Thanks to DOI for pursuing the FACA chartering. We need to review the requests from WFLC and pursue those that we should be responsible for • Kirk – For the non-federal partners – we have some money available for phase II of the Cohesive Strategy. We can use some of those funds to support travel to these meetings if that is what is keeping you from attending in person
7	Public Comment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ruth Tiger – wanted to make sure that the agendas and notes are posted on a public website. Response: www.forestandrangeland.gov • Mary Jacobs – excited about future participation and those issues dealing with local government • Dan Smith – good to see things moving forward – lots of work between now and September
