AND TV EQUIPMENT FACTORY IN DEFAULT

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined to review the presiding administrative law judge's ("ALJ") initial determination ("ID") (Order No. 11) granting a motion filed by Complainants Litepanels, Inc. and Litepanels, Ltd. (collectively, "Litepanels") for an order for default judgment against respondent Tianjin Wuqing Huanyu Film and TV Equipment Factory ("Tianjin"). On review, the Commission affirms the ALJ's ID finding Tianjin in default.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on September 7, 2011, based on a complaint filed by Litepanels. 76 Fed. Reg. 55416 (Sept. 7, 2011). The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337) by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 7,429,117; 7,510,290; 7,318,652; 6,948,823; and 7,972,022. Supplements to the complaint were filed on August 23 and 25, 2011. The complaint, as supplemented, names fifteen respondents, including Tianjin.

The Commission served the complaint and notice of investigation on Tianjin via FedEx on September 1, 2011. Delivery of the complaint and notice has not been confirmed; however, the complaint and notice have not been returned to the Commission and FedEx has not informed the Commission that Tianjin has refused the complaint and notice of investigation.

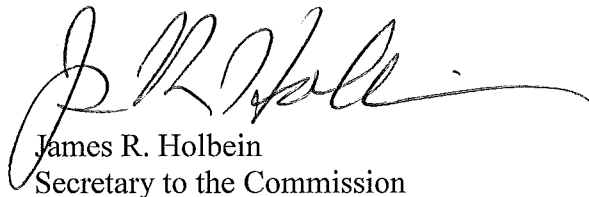

On September 8, 2011, Order No. 2, Notice of Ground Rules and Order Setting Date for Submission of Discovery Statements and Date for Preliminary Conference, was served on Tianjin via First Class Mail. The letter was not returned to the Commission and Tianjin failed to respond to the ALJ's Order.

On November 10, 2011, Litepanels filed a motion pursuant to Commission Rule 210.16(b) for an order to show cause and for default judgment against respondent Tianjin for failure to respond to the complaint and notice of investigation. On November 21, 2011, the Commission Investigative Staff Attorney filed a response in support of Litepanels' motion. On November 23, 2011, the ALJ issued Order No. 9 requiring respondent Tianjin to show cause why it has not responded to the complaint and notice of investigation by December 12, 2011. This Order was served on Tianjin via First Class Mail. The respondent did not respond to the order to show cause, or to Order No. 2 which included the due date for the filing of a discovery statement. On December 21, 2011, the ALJ issued the subject ID (Order No. 11) finding Tianjin in default on the basis of 19 C.F.R. §§ 210.16(a)(1) and 210.17. Order No. 11 was served on Tianjin via FedEx and was signed for by Tianjin on December 28, 2011. No petitions for review of this ID were filed.

The Commission has determined to review the ID to clarify the basis for the finding of default against Tianjin. Tianjin has failed to file written submissions requested by the ALJ in response to at least Order Nos. 2 and 9. Thus, the Commission affirms the ALJ's determination that Tianjin is in default under Rule 210.17.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. §1337), and in sections 210.42(h), 210.17 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. §§210.42(h), 210.17).

By order of the Commission.

James R. Holbein
Secretary to the Commission
