

Cathy ten Broeke focuses on housing and homelessness system policy as a Senior Advisor to the Executive Director.

Cathy has 19 years of experience working on the issue of homelessness. Cathy is taking a leave from her position as Director of the Minneapolis/Hennepin County Office to End Homelessness where she has led the planning and implementation of the community's plan to end homelessness and coordinated the City of Minneapolis and Hennepin County's response to homelessness in partnership with hundreds of business, faith, philanthropic, and nonprofit community partners. Cathy also Co-Chaired Minnesota's Statewide Homeless Coordinators Council, which coordinates the plans to end homelessness in over 14 jurisdictions and among eight tribes. Cathy's additional experience includes principal policy advisor to a County Commissioner, advising on policy related to homelessness, affordable housing, and mental health; direct service provider and shelter director at a shelter for homeless men; and membership in The National Alliance to End Homelessness' Leadership Council. Cathy holds a master's degree from the University of Minnesota's Humphrey Institute of Public Affairs.
