The Chief Justice said:

“I have the honor to announce, on behalf of the Court, that the October 2000 Term of the Supreme Court is now closed and the October Term 2001 is now convened.

“Before we hear the first argument, let us take a moment to recognize the terrible loss caused by the terrorist attacks on America that occurred on September 11th. I know our hearts go out to the families of those killed and injured. We extend our condolences to the Solicitor General of the United States for the loss of his wife Barbara.

“In the aftermath of the attacks, we have witnessed extraordinary bravery and compassion from Americans from all walks of life. Let us take a moment to grieve with those who mourn, and honor those who have historically performed their duty.’

ORDERS IN PENDING CASES

No. 00-1531. Verizon Maryland Inc., Petitioner v. Public Service Commission of Maryland, et al.; and

No. 00-1711. United States, Petitioner v. Public Service Commission of Maryland, et al. Petitions for certiorari in these cases presented the same questions at issue in Mathias v. WorldCom Technologies, No. 00-878, plus the additional question of subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U. S. C. § 1331. We granted certiorari only on the additional question, and held the other questions pending their resolution in Mathias, supra. Oral argument has revealed, however, that we may be unable to reach the merits of the questions presented in Mathias. Therefore, to ensure that we have jurisdiction over all of the questions at issue in these cases, petitions for writs of certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit granted on the remaining questions presented by the petitions, and request that the parties brief those questions. Briefs of petitioners to be filed with the Clerk and served upon opposing counsel on or before 3 p.m., Friday, January 11, 2002. Respondents' briefs to be filed with the Clerk and served upon opposing counsel on or before 3 p.m., Friday, February 1, 2002. Reply briefs, if any, to be filed with the Clerk and served upon opposing counsel on or before 3 p.m., Friday, February 15, 2002. Petitioners' opening briefs and respondents' briefs shall not exceed 25 pages. Petitioners' reply briefs, if any, shall not exceed 15 pages. Rule 29.2 suspended in these cases. Justice O'Connor took no part in the consideration or decision of this order.

“Mr. Chief Justice, if you do not object, I shall open the proceedings this morning by taking note of the fact that this is the 30th Anniversary of your swearing-in as a Member of this Court. With one exception, you are the only Chief Justice who has been active for 30 years—that exception was John Marshall with whom, I am sure, you will happily share the honor.

“On behalf of all of your colleagues, I want to express our sincere appreciation for the exemplary way in which you have performed the special responsibilities of your high office, with particular emphasis on the efficiency, good humor, and absolute impartiality that you have consistently displayed when presiding at our Conferences.

“In a different setting, I would propose a toast to you, but, here I shall merely express our thanks for your 30 years of dedicated service to our Country.”

The Chief Justice said:

“Thank you, Justice Stevens. Today’s orders of the Court have been certified by The Chief Justice, filed with the Clerk, and they will not be otherwise announced.”

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

The Chief Justice said:

“As we open this morning, I want to pay tribute to our friend and colleague Byron R. White, a retired Justice of this Court, who died yesterday morning in Colorado.

“Byron White was nominated to the Court by President Kennedy on April 3, 1962, and was confirmed by the Senate eight days later. He took the oath of office forty years ago today, on April 16, 1962. He was the 93rd Justice to serve on this Court.

“Justice White was born and raised in Colorado. He was a rare combination of brilliant scholar and gifted athlete. He attended the University of Colorado, earning ten varsity letters, winning a Rhodes scholarship to Oxford. Before attending Oxford, he played professional football for the old Pittsburgh Pirates. When he returned from Oxford, he attended Yale Law School while playing football for the Detroit Lions on the weekends. He served as an intelligence officer for the Navy during World War II.

“Justice White was graduated from Yale Law School, earning the Cullen Prize for high academic grades. He clerked for Chief Justice Vinson and then returned home to Colorado where he practiced law for fourteen years, before joining the Justice Department as deputy attorney general under Robert Kennedy. Less than a year later, President Kennedy named him to the Court.

“Justice White was an able colleague and a good friend. He came as close as any to meriting Matthew Arnold’s description of Sophocles: he ‘saw life steadily and he saw it whole.’ All of us who served with him feel a sense of personal loss. Our condolences go out to his wife, Marion, his two children, and their families.

“At an appropriate time in the fall, the traditional memorial observance of the Court and the Bar will be held in this Courtroom.”
