INVESTIGATION

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review an initial determination (“ID”) (Order No. 27) issued by the presiding administrative law judge (“ALJ”) extending the target date for completion of the above-captioned investigation to August 3, 2009.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On January 4, 2006, the Commission instituted this investigation, based on a complaint filed by InterVideo Technology Corporation of Taiwan (“InterVideo”), alleging violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain personal computer consumer electronic convergent devices, components thereof, and products containing the same by reason of infringement of claims 1-10 of United States Patent No. 6,765,788 (“the ‘788 patent”). The complaint named four respondents: Dell, Inc. of Texas; WinBook Computer Corporation of Ohio (“WinBook”); Cyberlink Corporation of Taiwan; and Cyberlink.com Corporation of California. WinBook has been terminated from the investigation on the basis of a settlement agreement.

In light of an ex parte reexamination pending before the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“PTO”) relating to all ten of the claims in the ‘788 patent, the investigation has been stayed since institution. On September 18, 2007, the PTO issued a Reexamination Certificate for the ‘788 patent. InterVideo has indicated that it will file an amended complaint by March 7, 2008.

On February 25, 2008, the ALJ issued the subject ID, extending the target date for completion of this investigation to August 3, 2009. No petitions for review were filed. The Commission has determined not to review this ID.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.
