

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The National Commission on Digestive Diseases gratefully acknowledges all of the working group members (see Appendix 2) and their colleagues in the digestive diseases research and advocacy communities for their input and assistance in developing a comprehensive set of recommendations for the future of digestive diseases research.

Special appreciation is also extended to professional and patient advocacy group members and the general public who attended meetings and submitted suggestions during the public comment period.