AmeriCorps members tutor and mentor students in grades K-6 at the Rough Rock Community School. Members collaborate with school officials to address school safety issues by developing substance abuse and gang intervention activities. Additionally, members assist Tribal elders with repairs, home weatherization, and other support to help them remain in their homes and live independently. Members come from the Navajo population, and receive training during their service year to develop technical, professional and leadership skills.

Strengthening Alliance of Veterans and Families AmeriCorps Program

Navajo Nation has the largest number of veterans per capita (numbering over 16,000) who have served in the U.S Armed Forces since World War I to present. This program assists veterans and their families have difficulty accessing services due to language (50% speak Navajo as their first language), cultural boundaries, and geographical isolation. To meet these needs, AmeriCorps members ensure that Navajo veterans and their families are accessing and being provided quality care services in the areas of health and unmet social needs. Members serve in five veteran's affairs offices across the Navajo Nation.

Red Lake AmeriCorps Partners in Service to America is a program of the Red Lake Tribal Council, Red Lake Nation, in rural, northwest Minnesota. The program focuses on improving K-12 student academic achievement by placing members in schools and after-school programs. Members are trained as tutors through Red Lake College and provide academic support for students in the Ponemah, Red Lake, and St Mary's Elementary Schools. Members also provide school enrichment to students in the Ponemah/Red Lake Head Start Programs. In addition to their school-based service, members provide meals to homebound elders and mobilize community volunteers to meet identified community needs. Red Lake AmeriCorps members provide much-needed and appreciated services and are highly respected by their peers and communities.
